Police beat Daylight robbery

Two homes were broken into in daylight on Thursday December 2. The basement door at a home in RR 1, Acton was forced open and a shotgun valued at $400 was taken. Damage to the door was $100.

An unknown amount of jewellery was taken from a home at RR 2 in Acton when the side door was forced open. Damage has been estimated at $25.

A 1982 Ford parked on Main St. overnight Friday to Saturday received $300 damage when someone kicked and dented the front fender.

A pick-up truck parked on Churchill Rd. received $150 damage when someone smashed out the rear window sometime overnight Friday to Saturday.

There was a break and enter overnight Thursday to Friday at the Hornby Box Company at 285 Main St. N. Entry was gained by ripping off tin siding at the rear of the building. An undetermined amount of money was stolen and a vending machine was smashed causing $250 damage.

A truck parked on Church St. received around $200 damage last Friday at 10:45 a.m. when hit by another vehicle. The vehicle left the scene and police are looking for a yellow and brown van.

A 1978 GMC van owned by Acton resident Stephen Trotter was stolen from Maria St. sometime overnight Saturday to Sunday. Police have not recovered the van. A 31-year-old Acton woman drove into the wall at the LCBO Saturday afternoon, causing $400 damage to her car and breaking wine bottles worth $69.45. Police say Shirley Kennedy was driving through the parking lot, went over the curb and into the east wall.
