

Bruce Cooksley, Myrna Snow exchange vows in Ballinafad

Myrna Snow and Bruce Cooksley were married recently at the home of the bride's parents in Ballinafad.

The island in the pond at the bride's parents home was the setting for the wedding of Myrna-Jane Evaline Snow and Bruce James Cooksley in July.

The bride, of Elora, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Snow, RR 1 Georgetown (Ballinafad) and the groom, also of Elora, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cooksley, Edmonton, Alberta, formerly of RR 2 Hockwood. Myrna is a waitress at the Metcalfe Restaurant and Bruce works for Bell Canada. Dr. Rev. Thomas Bandy officiated at the double ring ceremony and Bob Pinkerton provided the organ music. Escorted down the aisle by her father, Myrna wore a sleeveless gown of nylon organza with a lace trimmed bodice and long flowing, double flounced train edged in lace. She wore a white hat and her mother's pearls which were worn on her wedding day. She carried a bouquet of silk roses, daisies, and babies breath in peach tones.

Marion Tilcox, a friend of the bride from Hillsburg was the matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Louise McClellan, sister of the bride, Vancouver. They both wore peach colored, floor length gowns. Marion's with a jacket and Louise's with a cape. They carried white fans adorned with peach colored roses, daisies and baby's breath. Flowergirls were Jolene and Rochelle McClellan, nieces of the bride, from Vancouver. They wore figured peach and beige georgette dresses with eyelid trim made by Lydia Snow and carried flowers the same as the bridal attendants with fans attached to tiny wicker baskets from which they threw rose petals.

Henry Toebes, Acton, was his friend's best man. Ushers were David Cooksley, of Edmonton, brother of the groom. They wore beige tuxedos. Ring-bearers were nephews of the bride, Travis and Shayne McClellan, of Vancouver. They wore dark brown suits. A dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents, and the reception dance was at the Erin Legion. Master of ceremonies was Clare Snow, brother of the bride, who also made the toast to the bride. Henry Toebes made the toast to the bridesmaids and John Snow the toast to the groom. Both fathers made brief speeches. Guests admired the wedding cake made by Mrs. Snow Drouillard and decorated by Mrs. Annie Snow Gates.

Mrs. Snow received her guests in a navy figured georgette dress with grey accessories. Mrs. Cooksley wore a mauve dress of georgette with white accessories. Special guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Edna Bahm, of Arrprior, the groom's grandmother; Mrs. Andy Lang, of Hillsburg, a family friend of the Snows; Mrs. Snow Brouillard of Georgetown, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McClellan and family of Vancouver, the bride's sister and husband. Other guests attended from Vancouver, Toronto, Mississauga, Edmonton, Hillsburgh, Erin, Acton, Eden Mills, Hockwood, Guelph, Georgetown and Ballinafad.

Prior to her marriage, Myrna was guest of honor at six showers hosted by: Marion Tilcox; Betty Snow; Helen Hansen; Helga Schwartz; Marena Malenfant; and Elizabeth Robinson. A stag was held for Bruce by Henry Toebes, Steve McIntyre, Barry Cooper and Gregory Snow at the Guelph Rod and Gun Club, Eden Mills.

Following a honeymoon in Niagara Falls, the newlyweds made their home in Elora.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Antrim of Dunkirk, Indiana announce the engagement of their daughter Mary Jane to Douglas Bradley Hutchison, son of Dr. and Mrs. Craig Hutchison of Dunkirk, Indiana and formerly of Acton. Miss Antrim is a graduate of Heritage Hall Christian School, Muncie, Indiana and attended Ball State University. She is employed and affiliated with Country Manor Nursing Homes in Dunkirk. Mr. Hutchison is a graduate of Colegio Alta Vista High School, Medellin, Columbia, South America 1979 and is a senior at Ball State University majoring in pre-med. A wedding date of June 16, 1983 has been selected at Grace Baptist Church in Muncie.

Pries is adjourned

Eric Pries, of Eden Mills will appear in Guelph Provincial Court February 14 to set a date for trial on charges of cultivating marijuana.

Pries appeared in court Monday and asked for the adjournment to February. He was charged this summer after Guelph OPP found marijuana growing on the property of his parents.
