Plowmen change date for match

by Henry J. Stanley
Friday, September 9 has been selected as the date for the 1983 Halton Plowing Match. This is a change from the past year when it was the following day—the same date as the Georgetown Fall Fair. This change was made at the Halton Plowmen's annual meeting on November 30 in the Agricultural Office, Milton.

Another change is the banquet, which has always been held immediately following the match. Next year, the banquet is scheduled for Tuesday evening, September 13. The Halton Furrow Queen will be selected at this time and plowing prize money and trophies presented.

Officers for 1983 are: President—Bryan Marshall, Milton No. 4; Past-President—Murray Breckon, Burlington No. 2; 1st Vice-President, Lloyd Stokes, Campbellville No. 2; 2nd Vice-President—John H. Reid, Georgetown No. 1; Treasurer—Doug Miller, O.M.A.F.; Assistant Secretary—George Swann; and the O.P.A. Director—Dwight May, Hornby No. 2.

It was agreed that Susan Livingston would compete for Halton in the Ontario Furrow Queen Competition at the International to be held near Ottawa next September, and that the Halton Furrow Queen chosen at the September 8th match would go to the International in 1984.

Delegates to the Ontario Plowmen's Association Annual, February in Toronto, are the club executive.

Jersey breeders hold annual

by Henry J. Stanley
Jersey breeders from Halton and Peel met on December 1st at Mountain Dew Restaurant, Georgetown, under the chairmanship of John Nixon, RR 1, Norval. Following a smorgasbord dinner, Mr. and Mrs. M. Beaty presented their trophy for high milk production to Jim Livock of Featherstone Bros., Oakville, for a total BCA for milk and fat of 454.

Bill Cooper, the new fieldman for the Ontario Jersey Club, stated that several new milk producers were starting into dairying with Jersey cows.

Directors elected from Halton for 1983 were: Jamie Alexander, Oakville 1; John Breckon, Georgetown 3; Dale Devlin, Milton No. 4; Lorne Ella, Hornby No. 1; Jim Livock, Oakville No. 1; John Nixon, Norval No. 1; and Eleanor Robinson, Georgetown No. 3.

Household Hints

by Paula McNelly

After you cut up chicken, scrub cutting board and utensils with bleach or scouring powder containing bleach. Protects your family against salmonella germs.

Easy wash for dirty oven racks: one cup automatic dishwasher detergent and 1/2 cup vinegar in a bathful of hot water. Place a bath towel under the racks to avoid scratches on tub. Let soak at least an hour.

Put a freshly ironed shirt or dress coat thoroughly before wearing or packing, or a well-wrinkled again quickly.
