

Association for Bright Child elect executive, plan program

On Tuesday, November 30 a large number of parents and educators gathered at Maspiehurst School to choose an executive for the recently formed Association for Bright Children (ABC) chapter.

Nominated and elected were: President: Liz Wallace, Vice President Glen Duff, Membership coordinator, John Postle, Treasurer David Brooks, Secretary June Cunningham, Publicity Jane Limoges, Programing North Halton, Bill French; Oakville, Stan Squires; Burlington, David McCausland.

Objectives listed by the group include (1) gaining acceptance for bright children, (2) support and information for parents, (3) working with educators to develop appropriate programs in the schools, and (4) coordinating extra-curricular programs for bright children.

There were 105 people present to hear George Robb, enrichment consultant with the Halton Board of Education, speak at a meeting in October. At the November 30 meeting David McCausland spoke on alternative education, focusing on the University of Toronto schools. He was followed on the agenda by Wm. Humphreys who lectured on the programs offered by the Ontario Student Debating Union. The large audience was again composed of parents and educators.

ABC will closely monitor what happens to the bright child as Bill 82 is implemented in Halton. The group feels that all bright and creative children should benefit from upgraded and challenging programs in their family schools.

Anyone interested in learning more about ABC, please call Liz Wallace at 845-4893, or Glen Duff at (519) 856-9935.
