

Patey family files lawsuits

The family of 7-year-old Brent Patey, who was one of two little boys to drown on the same afternoon in July at Fairy Lake, is suing Halton Hills, three lifeguards on duty at Prospect Park that day and the owner of the property adjacent to the swimming area.

A writ was filed in the Supreme Court of Ontario in Guelph December 6 revealing that Clarence and Linda Patey and their infant son Shawn are suing Halton Hills, Laura Brillinger, Linda Kilpatrick and Jim McVeigh, as well as Marjorie Sinclair Landsborough of 97 Lake St.

No amount of damages was specified in the writ.

Katherine Ford found out Santa wasn't quite what she expected at the Legion Christmas party Sunday afternoon.

Brian Coles didn't seem too thrilled to see Santa at the Legion Christmas party Sunday afternoon.

Lights soon for St. Joe's

Street lights will soon be erected in the vicinity of the new St. Joseph's School on Mill St. Halton regional councillor Dave Whitting noted last week during the official opening of that building.

During his speech to the audience, Whitting said council knows how dark it is around the school, especially for children staying late at school. The lights will be installed as soon as possible, he said.
