

Knox Alert

Pot luck at meet

The Knox "Alert" Evening Group met in the Dr. A.C. Stewart Memorial Hall for their Christmas pot luck supper. It was a most delicious supper, after which there was a gift exchange.

The meeting came to order with the Call to Worship, "That Holy Night" by the President, Isabel McDonald. The business was dealt with first, with the secretary's and treasurer's reports being read and adopted. The treasurer reported that they netted $212.19 at the bazaar after expenses were all paid.

It was moved and seconded that the treasurer send in whatever monies were needed to make up the groups allocation. A list of Shut-ins was compiled and members took one or two names each, to send a Christmas card from the group.

Slips were given out for the "Every Member Participation" meeting in January. After the business was concluded, Irene Terry, Convenor, Vera Inglis and Ruth Marshall conducted a very impressive Christmas program taken from the Glad Tidings and Gladys Davidson sang "Lo, a Rose ere Blooming."

Obituary

Rose Dyer

A long time Rockwood resident, Rose Lillian Dyer, died December 7 in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, following a four month illness.

Mrs. Dyer was born November 10, 1885 in Erin Township. She and her husband moved to Rockwood 65 years ago, where she was a housewife. Her husband died in 1932.

Mrs. Dyer attended Rockwood United Church and was active in the Women's Missionary Society and the Sunshine Club.

Rev. H. Garfield Rees, Guelph, officiated at the funeral at Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton. Interment was at Rockwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were grandsons John Dyer, Alan Swanson, David Swanson, Danny Martin, Peter Martin and Ron Lee.

Greenock

22 at meeting

The Christmas meeting of the WI was held December 14 at the home of Miss E. Pearen with 22 members and three guests attending.

Following the Institute Opening Ode and The Mary Stewart Collect, Mrs. W. Aitken read two Christmas poems. Mrs. E. McGeragle gave meditations and played a lovely Christmas recording. The roll call was to bring any contributions for the shut-in baskets and to show or tell about a favorite Christmas card. The collection for pennies for friendships was this meeting and each person was to donate one penny for each name on your Christmas gift list.

Mrs. J. McCulloch, Mrs. R. McKeown, Mrs. R. Sinclair and Mrs. A. Gates all favored us with humorous and otherwise Christmas readings and poems. A guest Mrs. A. Van Manen played her guitar and sang Christmas carols in which she asked us all to join. It was very enjoyable.

From under a lovely Christmas tree everyone received a gift from their unknown friend. An extra special lunch was served by the lunch committee Mrs. S. McKinnon, Mrs. J. Addison and Mrs. J. Vandergand, assisted by the hostess.
