 Merry Christmas
 Dear Friends: Although my love is as intensive, this year I am quite apprehensive. For postage stamps are too expensive. For Christmas cards: Therefore I think I'll not send many. In fact, I just might make that "any". 'Cept one, perhaps, to Mr. Rennie. With my regards:
 God grant you joy and happy laughter, With steadfast sleeping through your rest, And memories lingering gently after, The New Year long;
 God grant you catch the love-notes winging, With time to hear the joy-bells ringing, And, sweet above your carol - singing, The angels' song - Isabel Anderson
