

Obituary

Winnifred Elliott

A resident of Acton for many years, A. Winnifred Elliott died at her home, 78 Bower St. on December 26.

All the closest members of her family were with her on Christmas day; her husband R. Hilton Elliott; son George, daughter Shirley (Mrs. Jim Dills) of Milton and daughter Jane of Toronto; all five grandchildren including her oldest, Steven, home from Stoney Plain, Alberta, for the holidays; and her sister Shirley (Mrs. Dwight Haven) of Comber, Ontario.

She is also survived by a brother William Buchanan of Comber and was predeceased by brothers Senator J.A. Buchanan of Edmonton, Frank of Comber; and sisters Mrs. A.M. Powers of Picton, Mrs. J.D. Wilson of Dunedin, Florida, and Mrs. George Hallett of Comber.

Daughter of George and Mary Buchanan, she was raised and attended schools at Comber. There, she and Mr. Elliott were married in September, 1927 and they moved to Acton in 1932 when the two Elliott brothers, Hilton and Harold, purchased the large dry goods and grocery store at the corner of Mill and Willow Streets, where the Bank of Montreal now stands. They operated the business for many years.

A busy housewife and mother, Mrs. Elliott was also a member of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the IOOE and of the TAG group of Trinity United Church.

She was a talented pianist and her love of music extended to her children and grandchildren; she played the piano frequently for Trinity Sunday School and son George has been organist and choirmaster at Trinity for over 25 years. She enjoyed oil painting and antique collecting and was always interested in Acton's history.

Funeral service was held in the church she attended regularly for the past half century. Pallbearers were grandsons Steven, Mark, and Paul Dills, and Eldon Comfort, Bob Hart, and Roy Knapp of Trinity choir.

Her former minister, Rev. Charles Beaton, now of Hamilton, was joined by Andrew King, present minister at Trinity, in conducting the services there and at Fairview cemetery.

False alarms

Acton Firefighters responded to two false alarms this week.

The first was a call to the Blue Springs Scout Reserve last Thursday. Apparently smoke from someone cooking set off the alarm.

Last night (Tuesday) the firefighters were at Robert Little school for another false alarm.
