Community Calendar

Readings from Shaw

The witty, penetrating, words of George Bernard Shaw will be brought to life, January 19, when dramatic readings of "Don Juan in Hell" will be given by Normic Studio Productions, in Ox-bow Books, Main Street.

At 7:30 p.m. an informal atmosphere of sitting on floor and chairs amid pushed-back bookshelves. Bev Nicholas, Florence O'Connor, Glen Tarlin and Michael Burgoyne will be featured readers. The production is directed by Enid Williams-Nicholas.

Family Asthma Program

The Family Asthma Program at Georgetown District High School Pool continues every Saturday morning with children having structured swim lessons, exercises and breathing techniques.

This free of charge program is being sponsored by the Halton Lung Association. Call 827-7973 for more information.

Card club

The "Y" is offering a drop-in Card Club. An open house for card club enthusiasts will be on Thursday January 13 from 1.15 to 3.30 p.m. Euchre, cribbage and bridge players are invited.

The "Y" is also offering a 10 week novice bridge program for beginners who want to learn how to play bridge. Lessons will be held on Wednesday afternoons from January 12 to March 16. Call the "Y" at 877-6163 for more information.

Christian Women's Fellowship

Halton Hills Christian Women's Fellowship will hold their first meeting on Tuesday January 18 at St. George's Anglican Hall from 1.15 p.m. to 3.15 p.m. Judy Pattison of J&M Books Ltd. in Brampton will be the guest speaker.

Jo Anne Beaulieu of Colors for All Seasons will be on hand to speak about a new fashion co-ordination concept. Elizabeth Sterritt of Brampton will provide the music. The cost is $3.25 and reservations can be made by calling 877-4158.

Watch With Me

Rev. John Scott, M.D., acting director of the Palliative Care Unit, Toronto Grace Hospital and lecturer for the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto will be speaking at Knox Presbyterian Church beginning at 7.30 p.m. on Sunday January 16.

Rummage sale

The Boston Ladies' Fellowship Group is holding their annual Winter Clearance Rummage and White Elephant Sale on Wednesday January 26 from 10 to 12 a.m. at Boston Presbyterian Church on the Third Line, north of 5 Sideroad.

Become an artist!

Credit Valley Artisans are offering winter courses beginning this month on woodcarving, quilting, weaving and pottery for all levels.

There will also be Saturday workshops on candlemaking and papermaking February and March. Registration for all of these courses is this Saturday, January 15 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Credit Valley Artisans Cottage in Cedarvale Park. For more information about the courses call 877-6784.

Hunting forbidden in limits

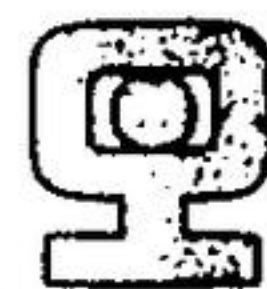

Reports of hunters in the Terra Cotta area have prompted Bylaw Enforcement Officer Jack Lusty to warn anyone with the same idea that it is against the law to shoot firearms within the limits of Halton Hills. In the rural areas any hunter must have the written permission of the farmer on whose land he is hunting, and in the towns it is forbidden to shoot firearms at all. Lusty said people walking on the Bruce Trail, in the Terra Cotta area, have reported pellets landing around them. He notes this does not prevent farmers from shooting on their own property. The Bylaw Enforcement Officer points out there is a fine as high as $1,000 for discharging firearms within the Town limits without permission from the farmer.
