Dunn guilty selling drug

David Dunn of Acton pleaded guilty to one count of trafficking in cannabis marijuana, in Milton County Court Monday. He appeared before Judge J. Carnwath.

Dunn was arrested last February and charged with trafficking in a region wide drug sweep following a joint RCMP and Halton Regional Police undercover operation last winter.

According to Federal Prosecutor Bill Manderson, on January 7 Dunn sold an undercover RCMP officer approximately half a pound of marijuana for $330 after meeting him in the 747 Restaurant on Mill St. The officer drove Dunn to a home on Agnes St. where he picked up eight bags of marijuana.

Gerald Punnett, defense lawyer for Dunn, contended that his client was merely a go-between for the police officer and the actual trafficker. Dunn agreed to get the marijuana, but did not make any money on the deal as he gave all the money to the dealer, who has also been charged, he noted.

Punnett added that the officer had approached Dunn prior to January 7 and asked if he knew where he could get marijuana. He also pointed out the officer made several telephone calls at all times of the day and night to the Dunn home and hinted at harassment.

Manderson assured Judge Carnwath that the telephone calls were merely a method of communication, but he did not feel they constituted undue pressure to make a sale.

Dunn will be sentenced March 4.

Students seek billets

Eleven young people involved with the Katimavik program are looking for billets in the Acton area and aiming to become more involved with the community.

Group leader Maryse LaFleur, from Quebec, said this group spent three months in St. Felicien, Quebec, and three months in Dawson City, Yukon, before coming here.

The crew is busy working for the Halton Region Conservation Authority building a bridge at Hilton Falls.

One of the goals of Katimavik is for the young people to become integrated into the community and since they are renting a home at RR 2 Rockwood west of Acton, they want to become involved in Acton.

The young people, ranging in age between 17 and 22, are to make presentations at the Acton High School about Katimavik and their experiences in the Yukon.

They hope to be billeted at Acton homes for two weeks, February 14 to 28, and share the lives and work of the local families. The billet families will receive $6 a day to cover lodging. If you are interested call 853-3809.

Katimavik is also inviting charity organizations which need help projects in the evenings or weekends to contact them.

They also hope to get to know the young people of Acton.

Four of the young people, Chantal Trotter, Sandra Provencal, Allen Johnston and Mario Tremblay are from Quebec while Patty Hines, Kurt Noren and Dana Coates are from Ontario. Phil Gabel and Keyvn Astley are from British Columbia while Frances Johnson is from New Brunswick and Kathi Kay is from Saskatchewan.

Pedestrian hit by car

A male pedestrian was struck on the right leg Wednesday afternoon at the corner of Highway 25 and Highway 7.

According to police reports, Lisa Rose, Acton, was driving southbound on Highway 25 and while pulling away from the corner, struck the pedestrian at 5:10 p.m.

Police say the pedestrian did not want to contact the police and left the scene.

Case remanded

Dennis Devine, who has been charged with theft over $200 and who turned himself in last week, appeared in Milton Provincial court Monday.

His case has been remanded until February 14, when a court date will be set at that time.

C of C annual Jan. 31

The annual general meeting of the Acton Chamber of Commerce is planned for next Monday at the Acton Legion. Tickets have been mailed to members and others wanting tickets should call Dave Whiting at 853-3725.
