Grace Graham, Mary McVeigh and Jim McVeigh stand amidst an array of baked goods in The Bake Shop.

Bake Shop fills the gap

Mary McVeigh is following in her father's footsteps, as she and Grace Graham open the Bake Shop while at the same time, occupying a vacant store on the main street, the former Toddlers to Teens store. The women do all the baking for the store at the rear of the building, making bread, muffins, cookies, tarts, cakes and pies for hungry customers. The shop opened last week and already is getting rave reviews around town. Mary said that she had never been in business before, and took advantage of the fact there was no other bake shop in town. Her father was also a baker, making her decision a natural one. Mary, of Nelson Court and Grace of Elmore Drive, keep the store open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Minor injuries in crash

An Acton man sustained minor injuries last Tuesday evening after he turned the wheels of his car to the left, but the car kept on driving straight. Damage to his car is estimated at $2,000. According to Halton Regional Police, Andrew Kroezer of Young St. was driving east-bound on Eastern Avenue, just west of Hillcrest Dr., when he turned the wheels but kept going, striking a hydro pole. The road was icy at the time of the accident.
