First place winner for black and white prints in Donald Johnston, Oakville, with a picture of a rock outcrop on the Niagara Escarpment. Nicholas Urban from Milton, won first prize with a color slide of Crawford Lake in the Fall. Photographs and slides were judged on composition, contrast, subject matter, mood and technical quality.

This contest is held yearly and is open to the public. Winners received an annual pass to all Halton Conservation Areas, award money and recognition in the Conservation Authority's quarterly publication "The Cornerstone."
