Mayor's birthday

Grubbe bakes it, Pete takes cake

What do former councillors do after they retire? Well, one thing is bake cakes for the mayor's birthday.

Mayor Peter Pomeroy was surprised by a cake with candles at Monday's general committee meeting. It was brought down to the Seventh Line municipal office by Councillor Ross Knechtel and baked by former Acton representative Terry Grubbe.

The mayor turned 44 on Sunday. Everyone on council and in the audience sang Happy Birthday to him.

Pomeroy pointed out the Chinese New Year started the same day as his birthday, so he wanted to wish all Chinese people Happy Birthday too.

Council then recessed while the mayor passed out pieces of his cake to everyone in the chambers.

Ebenezer

Hymn sing enjoyed

by Mrs. Ron McLean

The Hymn Sing sponsored by the Stewards was enjoyed by a large crowd. Our old tracker organ was built by Edward Lye, around 1900, in a church in Welland. Later taken to Woodstock and rebuilt, it was installed in St. Paul's Church, Milverton, in 1929. The organ was dismantled and re-built by Homer Kitt, with the assistance of the late Edwin Watson, a local church member, in 1950. It is hoped that the restoration of the organ will be completed by Easter.

One highlight of the evening was a duet by Rev. Finley and Timmy Partello; another was a selection by the Kitching Sextette. The youth group sang a selection, also the junior choir, under Lois Beaton and Greg, Kitching played "Dannie Boy" on the saxophone. Lunch concluded a musical treat.

May Ellen Nettle, Diaconal minister, and a member of Eden Mills congregation, will conduct the services in the three churches next Sunday. After the services, the three congregations assemble at Ebenezer. After a light lunch, the pastoral relations committee will report. The Rev. Doug Sloan will attend as representative of Presbytery.

Rev. Lewis, taking post-graduate studies at Waterloo University, will conduct the services on February 27.

Congratulations to Laura and Blade Weise on the birth of an eight pound baby sister for Susan, Noah and Joshua.
