Legion happenings
 by Harry Norton
 The 14th Annual Pee Wee House League Hockey Tournament sponsored by Branch 197 came to a successful conclusion on Sunday afternoon with the presentation of prizes and trophies to the winners by our president, James Higgins, and the Dominion President, Comrade Dave Capperault. Twenty teams competed from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon and the Team from Jordan won the 'A' group consolation, with Grimsby being the 'A' Champions. In the 'B' group Drayton took down the consolation and West Hill-2 were the champions.
 Tickets were sold for the Friday and Saturday games and the results of the lucky draw on these tickets were 1st. D. Orth from Drayton; 2nd. W. Zambell from Ancaster; and 3rd. Ed Norton from Acton. Other winners were Henry Clayton from Jordan getting a pair of skates; Galt-2 team winning McDonald's vouchers; Jason Henderson won a prize as the best ticket seller and Arthur Mitchell also rewarded for being the second best ticket seller.

Branch 197 Minor Hockey Association wishes to thank all players, parents and volunteers that helped make this annual affair such a success.
 Branch 197 is hosting the Zone Darts tournament on Saturday, February 26. Play starts at 10 a.m. and both singles and doubles darts will be played.
 Music in the lounge will be provided this Saturday by 'Hi Fi's', so come on out and join the gang. Also on Saturday we will have a bus load of comrades from Branch 121, Gall, visiting for an hour or so around noon hour. Come on down and make them welcome.
