Travel miss play-offs

Industrial hockey's regular season wrapped up on Sunday with Acton Travel and Heller's being eliminated from further action.

The close industrial race ended with Family Cleaners, Lakeview Centre, and Nielsen's Clothing grabbing wins.

Family Cleaners trounced Acton Travel on the weekend 8-2.

Gary Lumbers, Gary Pickles and Bruce McPhail all netted a pair of goals for the winners. Single markers went to Don Brouillard and George Artem. Chris Rowsell picked up three assists with Pickles and McPhail adding two each and Brouillard, Lumbers and Wayne Deforest contributing lone aids.

Acton Travel goals were pocketed by Glen McKenzie and Bill Manca while assists went to Bart Jacobs with a couple and McKenzie and Brian Lloyd with singles.

Lakeview Centre tallied up a 13-6 score against Heller's.

Lakeview goals were potted by Jeff Townsley with four, Bruce Cooksley and Russ VanFleet with three each, Henry Toebes with a pair and Cliff Britton adding a single. Toebes helped out with four assists, while Ted Saitz and Bren Irwin added three. Tim McIntyre, Cooksley and Townsley counted two, and VanFleet passed for one.

Scott Withers connected four times for Heller's with Ken Owen and Mike Miller grabbing singles. Joe Gardin had six assists while Miller notched two and Charlie Payne and Owen added lone aids in a losing cause.

ATW's goal was fired by John Snow on pass from Claire Snow.

In the start of the best two out of three games semi-final firstplace ATW meets third place Family Cleaners Sunday at 7 p.m. At 8.20 p.m. second place Lakeview Centre plays fourth place Neilsen's Clothing.

Girls show improvement at volleyball event

On Thursday the Acton High Midget Girls' volleyball team competed in the Second Annual Lanier Tournament at Lord Elgin High School.

In their first match the midgets defeated host Lord Elgin by scores of 15-12 and 15-9. Next the girls split a pair of games with Oakville-Trafalgar. Acton won the first game 15-9 and dropped the second 15-11.

The Redmen fell to Aldershot in their next encounter, losing 15-13 and 15-7.

With three wins Acton placed second in their preliminary division and advanced to the semi-finals against Georgetown.

Acton was beaten in this contest by 15-0 and 15-2 scores, and eliminated from further play.

The purpose of this tournament, according to coach Anne Lepik, was to allow girls not playing interschool volleyball to play at a competitive level. There was a definite improvement over Acton's showing at last year's tournament, when the girls came home winless.

Moms advance

On Monday the Acton Minor Atom Hockey Moms advanced to the next round of their Hub League play-offs with a 5-0 victory in Brantford.

Michael Kinnon and Wayne Bousfield each fired a pair of markers for Acton with Michael McMahon netting a single goal.

John McLean, Jamie Galway, Derek Martin, Jason Piper, Eric Heagle and Jeffrey Koprowski all contributed assists in the win.

The Moms eliminated Brantford in two straight games and will now meet Waterloo in the next round of Hub playoffs.

Moms fall

Acton Minor Atoms were eliminated from OMHA play-offs last Wednesday when they dropped a 4-2 decision in Flamboro.

Eric Heagle and Michael Kinnon scored the Acton goals with assists going to Kinnon and Jeffrey Koprowski.

In the Minor Atom's first game in Hub

League play-offs they defeated Brantford 3-2 in Brantford.

Jason Piper, Michael McMahon and John McLean all fired markers for Acton in the victory. Single assists were pocketed by Derek Johnson, Wayne Bousfield, Piper, McLean, and McMahon.
