

Ken Clapperton calls out the bids at the Rotary Club auction Thursday night at the Band Hall. The proceeds from the auction went to Rotary community work.

Osprige

97th birthday is celebrated

by Doris Fines
The Osprige Brownies had an interesting evening recently, when they went to the arboretum at the University of Guelph, to go on an Owl Hunt.
The Osprige Guide Company Patrol leaders acted as hostesses to other patrol leaders from Hillsburgh and Rockwood recently.
Guides and Brownies are now taking orders for cookies, to be delivered in early May.
Nine girls have joined up with Mimosa 2, 4-H Homemaking club to begin the project "Looking Great, Feeling Great." The leader, Mrs. Shirley Rowan, assisted by Mrs. Joy Cole, introduced the course, and outlined the special project. Officers were chosen: president, Cheryl Misurka; vice president, Wendy Bailey; secretary, Kerry Green; treasurer, Tammy Blades; and press reporter, Susan Cole.
Mrs. Anne Smith was hostess for the February meeting of Osprige Ladies Aid. Flora Bruce had the devotional, Mildred Sinclair concluded the last chapter of the study book. Rita Kearns concluded the meeting with prayer.
Kristen Leigh Mahnke was baptized on January 30, at St. Peter's, Oustic. Shelly Samples is her godmother, and Peter Mahnke her godfather. Mr. and Mrs. William Samples of Windsor, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Langlois of Harrow were present. A dinner was held after the baptism at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gord Mahnke in Milton. Father Andrew Meszaros gave the blessing at dinner. Kristen is the daughter of Wally and Monalee Mahnke of RR 1, Guelph, and little sister to Dorianna.
Ward and Flora Bruce, along with Gordon and Jean Johnston, attended the 80th birthday party for Mrs. Mary Britton recently at the home of Ross and Marjorie Britton, RR 4 Acton.
