Gems still alive

The Georgetown Gemini may not have been considered much of a threat by many Central Ontario Junior 'B' Hockey League teams over the regular season but they sure take notice now.
The Gems finished seventh in an eight team league this season but they are now preparing to do battle with the powerful Streetsville Derbys, their first ever shot at a COJBHL title.
The local talents have taken the league by storm in the play-offs, upsetting the second placed Oakville Blades in six games in the quarter-finals and then completed stage two of their 'Cinderella' story Saturday night as they disposed of the third placed Burlington Cougars in the same number of games.
The Gems built up a 3-1 lead in games on the Cougars but dropped a 6-3 decision in Burlington Friday night, forcing a sixth game at Alcott on Saturday.
Like many of the recent games at Alcott the Gems kept the fans in their seats until the final seconds. Kevin Franks picked up a perfect pass from defenceman Chris Peavoy, broke in alone to beat Rod Kirk with just five seconds remaining to give the Gems an exciting 6-5 win, eliminating the Cougars and giving the Gems a shot at the Derbys.
The league final is slated to begin tomorrow night (Thursday) at the Vic Johnson Arena in Streetsville with the second game in Georgetown Monday at 8.30 p.m.
