

Raiders down 3-1

No one can say the Collingwood Shipbuilders don't keep their promises. After the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders had humiliated them last year the Shipbuilders vowed they would be back and competitive next season. Unfortunately, for the red and white, they have kept their promise.

The Shipbuilders surprised the Raiders in the opening two games of the series but the red and white came from behind on Thursday at home to post a 5-4 win only to have Collingwood regain a two game lead with a 6-3 triumph on Shipbuilder ice Friday night.

McKenzie-Smith hosted the first annual Wrestling Tournament in Acton Saturday. Teams participating were Orangeville, Brampton, Milton and Georgetown.

Sheppard gets silver at wrestling meet

Acton competitors placed well at a wrestling meet hosted by McKenzie-Smith Middle School on Saturday.

Local medal winners were Steve Sheppard, who picked up a silver medal in the 28 kilo division and John Neely, winning a bronze medal in the 30 kilo weight class.

Other successful McKenzie-Smith wrestlers were: Sean McFadden, fourth in 53 kilos; Wayne Durose, fifth in 32 kilos; Richard Vranick, fifth in 35 kilos; and Troy Foster, fifth in 38 kilos.

Coach Wayne Sumbler was pleased with the tournament, and commented on the positive showing of the Acton competition against much larger and more experienced squads.

Pringdale from Scarborough won the tournament. They finished a single point ahead of Centennial from Georgetown.
