Giants lost the spark plugs of their title drive last year, Morgan and Reggle Smith. Their pitching was better than the talent indicated last year and won't likely repeat. Jack Clark still supplies hitting and power. With Smith and Morgan gone the Giants order won't be that tough an out

Reds will be better for last year's disaster. they're moving some talented youngsters in from one of the major's most productive farm systems. Escaping the cellar will be enough of an achievement.

Houston used to have a great pitching staff and speed, but lacked strong hitting and particularily power. Now they've added pitching to their woes. Beyond Nolan Ryan and Joe Nickro they don't have hurlers. Moreno might help the hitting and is speedy, but can't solve the power shortage. Defence isn't great either. Babies join local church

by J. Turner

Churchill Church Congregation will hold their Annual Easter Pancake breakfast at the church this Sunday. The men prepare the breakfast and the survival rate in past years has been remarkable. All friends and neighbors are invited to join us for the fun, food, and fellowship Easter Sunday morning at 9.30 a.m., and for the Easter Service that will follow at 11.00.

This Wednesday, March 30, marks the end of a series of Lenten Bible studies at Churchill. Rev. Emrys Jenkins has led the class through an interesting and detailed study of Paul's letter to the Hebrews, and at the last session will examine Paul's letter to Philemon. The classes have been well attended and much enjoyed.

Two tiny new faces were welcomed to Churchill Church last Sunday morning. Vera and Dave Donnell stood proudly by while friends admired their six-week-old firstborn, Laura Grace, who modestly slept through all the attention. Maria and Tony Strokov, Fifth Line, are the baby's maternal grandparents. Jan and Terry Soutiere, Fourth Line, introduced the most recent addition to their family, Vincent Warren, who was born Tuesday March 15. Vincent has two older sisters, Laurel, 3, and Kelly, 18 months, to help Mommy look after him. He, too, slept peacefully through Rev. Jenkins excellent Palm Sunday sermon.
