

It won't be long now before the new Salvation Army Citadel is ready for occupancy.

Herman Kuehner does some of the painting work at the new Salvation Army Citadel.

Don Salvety, George Binden, and Joseph Melissae move in some of the furniture.

A little late for Easter Bonnets, but Kay Faseruk and Marta Belanger felt like donning a couple of hats for the camera at St. Joseph's CWL's spring rummage sale Friday.

Parents commend hearing teacher Ronda Vandal

The Halton Board of Education and individual teachers have been commended "for the high quality of education" given to a Georgetown student with a profound hearing loss. The girl's parents wrote to the board last week and commended

Ronda Vandal, itinerant Teacher of the Hearing Impaired "for six years of special love, dedication and support" given to the girl. Mrs. Vandal is an Acton resident.

The parents also commended Eileen Weldon and Pat Burroughs for the excellent job as paraprofessionals while the girl was attending George Kennedy School. She is now in Centennial School.

The letter also thanked Mrs. B. Gardner, vice-principal, Mrs. G. Forgunson, special education teacher,

Mrs. McVittie, paraprofessional and all of the girl's teachers at Centennial.

"We trust in these times of cutbacks that the fine high quality of education given to hearing impaired children will not be affected."

The Ball Club started off the season with a dance in the hall on April 9, that was enjoyed by all.

Get well wishes go out to Howard James and Al Thatcher who have been patients in the hospital.

Mrs. Florence Martin and Miss Isabel Lowrie visited with their cousin, Isabel Radeck and her husband Rick in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Obituary Colin Williams

Mason honors were bestowed upon Colin Small Williams at his funeral March 25 at Shoemaker Funeral Home.

Mr. Williams, of 17 Elizabeth Dr., died March 23 in Georgetown District Hospital at the age of 80.

Born on February 6, 1903 in Glasgow Scotland, Mr. Williams attended Scotland Street School in Glasgow. He came to Canada in 1953 and made his home in Weston. About 27 years ago, he moved to Acton, where he became well loved by the community, and active Mason and an active church member at Acton Baptist Church. When the senior citizen apartments opened in Elizabeth, he and his wife Marion moved in.

In his lifetime he was a member of the Orange Lodge, Walker Lodge, a life member of Saint Andrews Lodge, Glasgow, Master Mason and Scottish Mark Mason. Rev. Jean Stairs officiated at the funeral. Cremation followed.

Left to mourn his loss are his wife Marion, son Iain, daughter-in-law Susan, and grandchildren Cheryl (Williams) Berry, and David Williams.

$375 damage in chimney fire

A chimney fire at Lot 31, Concession 7 resulted in about $375 in damage to a factory built metal chimney, Halton Hills Fire Department reports.

The fire, reported at 12.25 a.m. on Friday, did not spread any further, Deputy Fire Chief Bob Hyde said.

Firefighters responded to a call at 3 Park Ave. on Wednesday evening when a furnace motor burnt out. There was minor smoke, but no damage or injuries, Deputy Chief Hyde said.

Early Tuesday morning, residents on the Sixth Line, Nassagawa reported a chimney fire. No damage was reported in the fire.

Boat, trailer stolen

A boat and trailer valued at $2,000 disappeared from the owner's residence recently.

Guelph OPP say the 15 foot craft, a 50 horse power Mercury Engine and the trailer were taken from the residence of Bruce Cook, Lot 8, Con. 4, Erin Township.

Rock-a-Long WI Elect '83-'84 executive

The Rock-a-Long Institute met at the home of Mrs. K. Spencer, April 5 with 13 members present.

Mrs. B. LeRoy, President opened the meeting with the singing of the Opening Ode, followed by the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. LeRoy read an inspiring poem on the "Call of Spring".

Business routine followed. Mrs. J. Ramsey Sec. Treas. presented the Secretary's report, followed by the Treasurer Report. A letter received from Barbara McAninch Home Economist was read urging members to study Home and Family Affairs particularly in the Secondary School Level. This study was approved March 14. A trip to the Erland Lee Home, Stoney Creek, was offered for April 13.

The Annual Area Convention of South Wellington District Institutes is scheduled for May 10 at Maryville. Mrs. LeRoy reported a study session at Fergus—Topic—"Rural Women." A discussion took place on "What can be done with the children while the mother is working in the barn?"

The quilt display at the Legion was very beautiful. Mrs. Cecil Nellis, District Director reported on the recent Branch Directors' Meeting. Mrs. McCutcheon, President reported a contest for the new Dairy Princess—Topic—"My Heritage."

Guelph Area Convention is to take place October 20 and 21 at Acton Legion Hall. Theme—"It's A Small World."

Some 500 meals a day is the project for the next Ploughing Match.

A suggestion is: Institutes should evaluate yearly programs. A Tea Garden festivity is scheduled in Guelph Square, sometime in the coming summer.

Competition for quilts for Spring 1984 with $75, $50 and $25 respectively.

The Annual Business Routine followed. The minutes of the last annual April 1982 were read by Mrs. J. Ramsey Sec. Treas. Each convener gave a report of her program for 1982-83. The installation of the new Slate of Officers for 1983-84 was conducted by Mrs. W. Black.

Slate of Officers for 1983-84 are: past president, Laura Spence (Mrs. K.); president, Mrs. B. LeRoy; first vice president, Mrs. G. Mitchell; second vice president, Mrs. J. Ramsey; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. J. Ramsey; assistant secretary treasurer, Mrs. H. Bayne; district director, Mrs. C. Nellis; assistant district director, Mrs. K. Spence; pianist, Mrs. W. McDuffe; public relations, Mrs. Lloyd Dyer; alternate P.R.O., Mrs. H. Bayne.

Convenors are: family and consumer affairs, Mrs. C. Nellis, Mrs. M. Nelson; agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. A. MacPhedran, Mrs. E. Sim; education and cultural activities, Mrs. J. Glendenning, Mrs. G. Mitchell; citizenship and world affairs, Mrs. K. Spence, Mrs. B. Ramsden; resolutions, Mrs. G. Mitchell; courtesy, Mrs. W. Petrie; curator, Mrs. W. Dunbar.

The June meeting 1983 is to be held at the home of Mrs. H. Bayne. Topic to be chosen.

The Roll Call was answered by a gift from each member to be sent to Mrs. C. Diamond. The gifts will be relayed to A.C.W.

The meeting closed with the singing of O Canada, new version.

Knox Ladies' Aid

Lawrence DeWolfe (nee Janet Allen) upon her ordination into the Ministry.

Plans were made for a large banquet on April 11 in the Dr. Stewart Hall. A report of a meeting of the Finance Division of the L.A.M.P. Committee was given by Mrs. J.C. Dennis, as the representative of the Ladies' Aid. "Sad but True", by Mrs. Kennedy, and "It's Income Tax Time Again", by Mrs. Morrison, were two timely readings given, and Mrs. R. Hansen was the lucky winner of the contest. Mrs. W.J. McLeod, as Courtesy Convener, thanked everyone who took part in the meeting.

The devotions were taken by Mrs. D.S. Morrison reading the scripture lesson and Mrs. W. Kennedy leading in prayer. "My pet peeve when shopping" was the roll call, and produced a variety of small problems—mostly the metric system. Twenty-five dollars was approved for the Session of the Church towards a gift for Mrs.

Competition for quilts for Spring 1984 with $75, $50 and $25 respectively.
