Fashion show packs hall

The annual spring fashion show sponsored by the United Church Women was a special event in the village this past week and one we look forward to. It was held in the Community Centre on Wednesday, April 20.

Each table was centered with a vase of spring flowers, six ladies seated around each table. Home baked desserts were served along with tea and coffee.

Joyce Clarke, president of the UCW, welcomed all to the third annual show. Betty Monchamp from "Frills" was on hand to comment on the ladies clothing, from her store in Georgetown. Hermiana Henderson represented JV clothing for the "teens". Beautiful hand made clothes were displayed on the children, they were from Pomme, Erin, Rosemary Rey commented as they were modeled by the youngsters.

Local residents did the modelling. There were ladies, teenagers, and this year they had the children, boys and girls, some quite "Tiny Tots". All did a wonderful job except one little fellow who showed more interest in playing with his balloon than walking up the ramp. Spectators thought the show entertaining and exciting.

To add to the excitement of the evening, many local business people donated door prizes. Mary Kay and Helen Letch representing "Mary Kay" cosmetics were on hand. They were kept busy seeing that each model looked her best as she appeared on the scene. The group of ladies from the UCW have worked hard for the special event, and are to be congratulated. The generosity of those who donated door prizes was very much appreciated. With every one taking an interest, it turned out to be a successful and enjoyable event.

Happy occasion
A happy occasion took place in the neighborhood on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wright. It was in the form of a presentation to a lifelong resident of the Eighth Line, A.D. McEnery. A.D. sold his farm and recently moved to his property on the Seventh Line. The first part of the evening was spent in friendly chit-chat, talking over old times. Around 10 p.m. Grant Wright announced that the purpose of this get-together was to pay tribute to a long time neighbor, and highly respected person A.D. McEnery. Grant then called on Winnie Smith to say a few words on behalf of those present.

Garnet Sinclair assisted Grant in presenting A.D. with a padded patio chair. A.D. responded by saying he would never forget his good neighbors and the years he spent among them and thanked all who attended. Old school pictures were passed around.

Mrs. Pat Kerr was the organist for the church service on Sunday. She also accompanied Bob Pinkerton on the piano as he favored with a solo.

Anniversary services will be held next Sunday at Ballinafad Church at 11 a.m.

 There will be a Seniors Craft Club Bazaar on Saturday, April 30 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 at 8 Durham St. Georgetown. Crafts, ceramics, baking and draws will be featured. Afternoon tea $1, children .50c.

Open house
 Georgetown Christian School is holding an open house, Thursday April 28, from seven until nine in the evening. The public is invited to attend, but if unable to make it that night, and want information call 877-4221 during school hours. The school is on Trafalgar Road across from Halton Hills Administration Building.

Musical Zoo here
 "A Musical Zoo" with the well-known Lampton Puppettheatre and the Community Winds Quintet comes to the John Elliott Theatre, Sunday May 1. Limited tickets for the 3:30 p.m. show will be available at the door. Advance tickets for the fall Super Sunday Series will be available at the May 1 performance.

Hospice needs help
 North Halton Hospice requires more volunteers to meet the increased demand for its services to the terminally ill person and their families. A volunteer training program is being conducted beginning the week of June 6 for 4 weeks. Successful applicants who complete this training program are asked to give a time commitment of four hours per week for one year and must attend monthly continuing education programs given by Hospice.

For applications and information contact Volunteer Co-ordinator Karen Ferguson at 877-3431 or President Margarite Knechtel at 878-5833.

Museum needs friends
 A meeting reactivating the Friends of the Halton Museum will be held on Thursday, April 28, 1983 at 7:30 p.m. in the Museum located in Kelso Conservation Area, Milton. The Friends is the volunteer group for the Museum.

The intention is for the Friends to be comprised of individuals with various skills, either professional or amateur, or just an interest in history to work with the museum's staff in developing the museum's potential.

For further information call the Museum at 878-3232.

Jog for "Y"
 The "Y" Jog-a-Walk-a-Thon gets off the mark Saturday May 7 at Fairgrounds Park, and the "Y" is hoping for a big turnout. The money raised goes to the "Y" project in Lima Peru.

Photorama
 Georgetown "Y" is introducing a new program on photography, called Photorama Creation Program. Ashley Ranson, a professional commercial photographer will instruct the course, starting May 3 at St. Francis of Assisi School, and will cover equipment, material, mood, portrait and scenic photography.

For further information call the "Y" at 877-6163, or 877-7655.

Crafts for disabled
 The Halton Hills Recreation Department is inviting any adult requiring physical assistance to do crafts to attend a special afternoon of crafts and coffee. Participants will have several options of projects to work on. Supplies, instruction and assistance will be provided at this program at the Cultural Centre Thursday April 28 from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. The fee of $1 is to cover the cost of craft materials. Call 877-5185, ext. 60 if you plan to attend.

Flowers for mum
 The Georgetown "Y" is having a flower arranging evening on Wednesday April 27 from 7:30 until 10 p.m. Each participant will create a spring floral arrangement using fresh daisies, mini carnations and gypsophelia.

There will also be a discussion about using flowers for Mother's Day gifts. The fee for this one evening of flower arranging is $6.50. Register at the "Y" on Mountainview Road South or call the "Y" at 877-6163 for more information.

Arthritis info.
 A free program about Arthritis will be at the Georgetown Library on Wednesday April 27 at 7:30 p.m. when Sidney Lineker of the Arthritis Society will discuss medical aspects and facts and fallacies about arthritis.
