

Dublin WI

Elect '83-84 officers

by Laura Dennis

Mrs. David Hunter, Churchill Rd. North, Acton, was hostess to 30 ladies, including one guest, at the meeting of Dublin Women's Institute on April 21, with Mrs. H. Haefner assisting as co-hostess. A delicious meal planned by Mrs. A. Diamond, Mrs. G. McMillan and Mrs. K. Lehn, of the Social Committee, was enjoyed by all present.

Opening exercises followed, and were presided over by Mrs. H. Besley, the president, who read the verse "The Clock of Time Keeps Turning." As this was the annual meeting, payment of fees, and offer of homes for meetings was given in answer to the Roll Call by Mrs. J. McLean. Also "what did you find when you did your spring cleaning?" was answered in roll call.

The Halton District Annual will be held in Norval Presbyterian Church on May 25. The voting delegates will be Mrs. D. Hunter, Mrs. H. Besley, Mrs. J. Kranendonk and Mrs. C. Armstrong. Other members signified their intention of attending the sessions.

An "In Memoriam" Book was purchased to record the names of members of the Branch who have passed on, and Mrs. J. C. Dennis will be looking after it. Interesting and valuable information was relayed by Mrs. D. Hunter and Mrs. John McLean who had attended a Seminar on "Rural Organizations of Today" recently.

A very busy year was reflected in the treasurer's annual report, as well as showing a good balance remaining in the bank. The Auditors' Report was given by Mrs. G. McMillan on behalf of herself and Mrs. E. Wilson, and showed neatly and well-kept books.

A summary of the reports of the Chairmen of the Standing Committees were given on Agriculture and Canadian Industries by Mrs. C. McIntyre; Citizenship and World Affairs, Mrs. A. Near; Educational and Cultural Affairs, Mrs. P. Levy; Resolutions, Mrs. E. Norton (in the absence of Mrs. M.

Nellis); Tweedsmuir History Curator, Mrs. H. Dodds; Farm Safety, Mrs. A. Murchison; Quilting, Mrs. C. Armstrong; Catering, Mrs. E. Wilson; and Public Relations, Mrs. Armstrong.

The term of Mrs. H. Besley as president of the Branch for two years has been served. In retiring she said she had had two very happy years in this position, and thanked everyone for their kindness, and fine co-operation. Mrs. D. Hunter presented Mrs. Besley with a FWIC pin on her retirement.

Mrs. Wallace Lasby took the chair and presided for the election of officers. The report of the Nominating Committee was given by Mrs. L. Wood, on behalf of Mrs. W. J. McIntyre, Mrs. B. Alder, Mrs. G. McMillan and herself. This was approved and accepted by the members. The following will be the officers for Dublin Women's Institute for the years 1983-84.
