

Golden Age Club held a bake sale Friday afternoon and by noon were almost sold out. Hard workers were Pearl Baker, Eileen Eberts, Lillian Berry and Edith Franklin.

Rockwood Co-op Nursery School's annual fund raising sale was held Saturday afternoon at Centennial School. Here Verna Rose, Evelyte Houghton, Heather Campbell and Frances Pedder sell various items.

Osprings Rev. Allen is appointed by Doris Fines

Rev. Wayne Allen of Kitchener, has been appointed as minister of Knox Presbyterian Church, Osprings, and Burns Presbyterian Church, Erin. He is to be ordained on May 29 at Hespeler. Rev. Allen and his wife Betty Jean will be moving into the manse in Erin at the end of the month. The congregations are pleased with his appointment, as he has been supply minister in the two pulpits for the last two months, and is already acquainted with the people.

Mrs. Agnes Keating's mother, Mrs. Vilda Campbell, left on Monday on a trip to the Holy Land.

Max and Bonnie Schotach, Heidi and Michael, spent the weekend at Burke's Falls visiting their mothers Mrs.

Rose Bryon and Mrs. Rose Steengaard.

Jack and Sadie Ferguson entertained many guests on Sunday after church. Their grandson Leon John Daniel Ferguson, infant son of Dan and Shelley Ferguson of Hillsburgh, was baptized in Erin-United Church on Sunday morning, by W. C. Tupling. Other guests at the baptism and the dinner following, were Don and Sharon Jackson and Donnie of Douglas Point, Mike and Connie Ferguson and Holly of Hillsburgh, and Pat and Susan Ferguson, Doug and Joan McArthur, Kevin McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kruger and boys of Erin, and Mrs. Myrtle Ridler of Guelph. This was followed by a birthday party in the afternoon for Connie and Jack.

Golden agers

The afternoon meeting of the Golden Age Club was held in the Lucton Hall on Tuesday, May 3 with Isabel McDonald in the chair.

Forty-three members attended, and there were eight tables of euchre in play, two tables of crokinole, and one game of cribbage.

The winners were: first gentleman, Walter Hugg; second gentleman, Bob McArthur; first lady, Marjorie Hall; second lady, Dorie Norton. The crokinole winners were Gladys and Kay Bail.

Our annual picnic will be held

July 20 at the home of Tom and Lillian Berry. Our quilt will be shown in the Hide House on each Sunday in May. Tickets will be on sale from 11 a.m. onwards. The first day to buy the tickets will May 15.

The bake sale was held on Friday, May 6, and was very successful. Edna Besley won the "Mother's Day" cake which was made by Mrs. Livermore, to whom we extend our sincere thanks. The next evening meeting will be on May 18, when we will be entertained by the "Beau's and Belles" from Georgetown.
