

Window-breaker makes amends

A 20-year-old Acton woman will repair two windows which were smashed at the Erin post office early Friday morning.

at 3.15 a.m., after she had broken the two windows, causing about $150 damage. Charges were not laid when the woman offered to pay repairs.

Paul Lawson is one of the Student Placement Officers who will be working out of the Acton Social Services and Information Centre on Wednesdays this summer.

Jobs look optimistic

Staff members of the Student Placement Centre are optimistic about job opportunities this year, according to one of the officers, Paul Lawson.

This optimism stems from a campaign to get homeowners hiring students to help with gardening, lawn work, or any other jobs the employer may want done around the house.

The Acton branch of the Student Placement Centre officially opened last Wednesday, and already there are well over 100 names on file for jobs.

The local branch is only open one day a week, and is located at the Acton Social Services and Information Centre, in the old Gals Pals store on Mill St.

Paul explained he works out of the Georgetown office with two others. They rotate their days in Acton, and visit prospective employers in the morning and are in the office to interview students after 1 p.m.

Applications forms can be picked up at the office any work day, but Paul recommended the students drop into the office on Wednesday afternoons for an interview, and to drop off the application. The Georgetown office, at 877-7417, is open five days a week to answer any questions.

The Acton Student Placement Centre can be reached at 853-3310.

Rockwood

Students play at recital

Last Wednesday, the students of Mrs. Ariel Barkley held their annual piano recital at Mrs. Barkley's home. The students who performed were: Vanessa Weideman, Kristina Ingleson, Helen Ferrier, Pam Osborne, Charles Bunce, Carol Millson, Ana Maria Bell, Lisa Verhagen, Matthew Tutzi and Jennifer Tutzi.

Mrs. Barkley opened the program with a piece by Francis Poulenc entitled: "Pastourelle." The students played a varied repertoire ranging from classical through to jazz. Three of the students, Helen Ferrier, Pam Osborne and Lisa Verhagen also performed duets with their mothers.

The evening concluded with refreshments and conversation. Mrs. Barkley extends a thanks to all who supported and helped make the recital a success.

Olive Stewart's surprise party

Mrs. Olive Stewart was pleasantly surprised on Sunday, when under the pretext of taking her for a ride in Ed Stewart's new car, she was transported to the home of Ed and Jean, where friends and relatives gathered to wish her well on her 62nd birthday.

Among the neighbors, friends and relatives from near by, there were nieces and nephews from a distance, Mac and Helen McLeod of Thornbury, Bud and Shirley Devons and their son Brian and his wife of Islington, Sid and Marian Baldwin of Ancaster, Jack and Ethel Atchison of Simcoe, Billy Atchison of Woodstock, and the Rev. Eve and Jean Smith of North Bay.

Jim and Linda Stewart who have been living at Shawnigan Lake, B.C. on Vancouver Island, have moved back east, and are at present staying with Jim's parents Vernon and Laura Stewart, until they get settled elsewhere.

Sympathy is extended to Laura and Vernon Stewart on the death of Laura's aunt, Mrs. Isabel Spencer, at London, on May 28.

Next Sunday, is the annual Sunday School picnic. It will be held on the lawn at the home of Ward and Flora Bruce, beginning with a barbecue at 11.30 a.m., followed by an outdoor church service, then the races and games for the children. Everyone is welcome. The following Sunday, June 19, is Knox Presbyterian Church anniversary service at 11 a.m.

The school choir, under the direction of Mrs. Anne Smith, put on an excellent performance at the Erin Family of School's music night on June 1 at Erin District High School. Four schools presented their choirs, and then combined for mass numbers. Mrs. Roberta Hoy accompanied the mass numbers on the piano.

Last Monday was the Osprige junior track and field day. The track was rather wet, but it didn't dampen the enthusiastic spirits of the competitors. The following are the placings: primary boys, Jason Reinders 26, Jason Willis 13, Tommy Grundy tied Gary Ramm with 8; primary girls, Esther Giammarco 24, Michelle Gibson 19, Valerie Sinclair 15; junior boys, Michael Cosgrove 32, Michael Copinak 30, Peter Gibson and Richard Goring tied with 18; junior girls, Deanna Louth 27, Renee Golden 12, Bonnie Campbell 11; intermediate boys, David Pickering 38, Mark Van Manen 28, Paul Lewandoski 16; intermediate girls, Laurie Van Manen 37, Amie Newman 30, Sherri Howell 16; senior boys, Paul Jessop 35, Steven Feletto 22, Bill Vlietstra 20; senior girls, Christine Timmerman 40, Tammy Swackhamer 32, Nancy Dubeau 22.

Household Hints
From Pauline McNelly
A plastic bag makes a good "plant tender" if you're going to be away for a while. Water and mist the plant, then cover the pot with a plastic bag. Anchor with a rubber band.
A polished floor, or even a painted porch, will keep its good looks longer if you clean with a dry mop instead of a broom.
Moisten the edges of the bowl before you cover with plastic wrap. It's cling better.
