

107 ladies attend district W.I. conference May 25

ACWW was the theme for the 82nd annual meeting of Halton District Women's Institute at Norval Presbyterian Church, May 25 at 1 p.m. with Mrs. E. Norton presiding.

Welcome was extended to 107 ladies by Mrs. McLean, Norval president. An impressive In Memoriam, conducted by Mrs. F. J. Shortill was assisted by Mrs. D. Lindsay.

Mrs. R. Alexander ratified 12 branch directors, at which time 1982-83 reports were distributed. Mrs. B. Benton, secretary, read minutes and financial reports, approved by auditor Mrs. Ironside.

Mrs. Sinclair determined voting method to be standing and majority.

In her president's address, Mrs. E. Norton urged everyone to enjoy meetings, have some fun, be willing contributors and always remember the Mary Stewart Collect.

P.R.O. Mrs. J. Wheelihan moderated standing committee and other convener reports.

Mary Van Dusen, with her accordion, led a lively sing song. Carole Stewart Kirkby, editor of Home and Country, advised there will soon be a new forward booking format and asked branches to forward items of interest and events for publications.

Nancy Schmidt, home economist, expressed thanks for sponsoring 4-H Clubs, summary days, quilting course, etc. There will be a two hour micro-oven course featuring advantages, dishes, menus, also foods—"More Sense than dollars"—advocated watching TV Town and Country, Ontario.

The 1983 Fall Convention will be on Oct. 20 and 21 at the Royal Canadian Legion, Guelph. The theme will be "It's a small world". Delegates will be Mrs. D. Lindsay, Mrs. E. Norton and alternate Mrs. W. Lasby. Billelting is the responsibility of Mrs. Betty Armstrong, Acton.

Mrs. E. Norton was named to attend May 26, Halton School Board meeting in Burlington regarding a proposal to eliminate grade 6 from Family Studies and Arts program, to be only offered to grades 7 and 8.

The Halton District WI quilted Banner is to be completed for the Oct. 2 convention.

Resolutions convener, Mrs. O. Vansickle reported on May officers conference at the University of Waterloo. Members are asked to view the film, Not a Love Story.

Mrs. W. Lasby presented 1983-84 slate of officers, who were installed by Mrs. Nancy Schmidt as follows: Past President Mrs. D. Lindsay, President Mrs. E. Norton, 1st Vice Mrs. W. Lasby, 2nd Vice Mrs. G. Treveranus, 3rd Vice Mrs. G. Pearce, Sec. Treas. Mrs. G. Benton, Standing committees, P.R.O. Mrs. J. Wheelihan, Ass't. Mrs. H. Moulden, Agriculture and Canadian Industries Mrs. F. J. Shortill, Citizenship and World Affairs Mrs. K. Cairns, Education and Cultural Affairs Mrs. W. Knapp, Family and Consumer affairs Mrs. R. Cowan, Resolutions, Mrs. O. Vansickle, Curator Mrs. J. Bird, Safety, Mrs. A.

Murchison, Agricultural Advisory Mrs. D. Lindsay, Alternate Mrs. K. Anderson, Federation of Agriculture Rep., Mrs. G. Campbell, Fed. Rep., Mrs. D. Lindsay, Alternate Mrs. F. J. Shortill, Auditors Mrs. G. Black, Mrs. Morrison.

There were no resolutions to debate this session.

A delicious dinner was served by Norval ladies.

Mrs. G. Treveranus introduced the special head table guests from Wellington Centre, Peel, Wellington South and Dairy Princess and Ellen Hurren.

The evening session began with Mrs. R. Alexander, retiring provincial Board member, distributing ten hand books to all branches and presented FWIO update. R.S.V.P. workshops proved valuable. The topic "as a thought on stress, something we must all face and do something about it, affecting different people in many ways."

After Oct. FWIO will fill orders of over $10.00 as articles are to be made more readily available in the future.
