Rotarian convention overflows to Acton

The Acton Rotary Club grew by 23 last Tuesday night, at least for a few hours. A special barbecue and social evening was held at the Acton Legion for 23 Rotarians from all over the world, but mainly from the United States, who had been attending the International Rotary Convention in Toronto. Four Acton Rotarians and their wives selected a few couples each, and were their hosts for the evening.

Bill and Cheryl Beaton, entertained John Erich and Louise Hinrichs, Scotia, New Rockwood

York; Nathaniel Bailey, Black River, Jamaica; and Frank and Patrice Geddes, Bakersfield East, California. Russell Paul and Evelyn Hughes, from Palatine, Illinois; and Al and Mary Gerguson, Pasadena and Conrad and Edna Bahnon, North Columbia County, USA were guests of Rick and Linda Devlin. Ken and Terry Grubbe were hosts to Billy and Frances Walton, North Jackson, Mississippi; Bill and Bette Johns, Pasadena; and Patrick and Martha Muleady, North Bakersfield, California. Other Acton Rotarian members attended the evening also.

The visitors enjoyed a tour of the old Hide House while in Acton.

Business included plans for the Acton Fall Fair display and a committee was formed to plan the quilt for the ploughing match in 1984.

The program convenors for Citizenship and World Affairs were Mrs. K. Spence and Mrs. B. Ramsden. Mrs. Ramsden recited the motto "The Ten Commandments of human relations" and Mrs. Spence introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Olive Colling, whose topic was the Royal Wedding. A social half hour followed with Mrs. W.

Minor injuries following crash
