Local families busy with many visitors

by Mrs G. MacDongall

Attention Mothers—there will be Swimming Lessons again this year, from June 29 to July 15. The registration fee is $5. for the three weeks. Contact Jane Thatcher at 856-4073.

Recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. M. Lowrie were Joan's niece Leslie, husband Gary and children Stacy and Cyle Wall. Stacy 9, was in a swim meet in Guelph and took two silver and one gold medal the first day and three medals the second day. Cyle, 7, won five firsts and two seconds the previous week.

Mrs. W. McLean was a special guest at the graduation exercises for her grandson Paul Francis, at the Ontario Veterinary College. Dr. Francis is the son of Bob and Betty Francis of London.

Miss Debbie McLean, California, recently surprised her grandmother Mrs. Wm. McLean with a visit.

Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson who has retired as Sunday School superintendent at the United Church after 10 years of faithful service was honored at a little party with special cake at the closing of Sunday School for the summer months.

Miss Isabel Lowrie has returned from a visit with friends in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Munro have had as their guests Brenda and Eddie Carter and their children Martin and Angela from Ilford, England. The Carters enjoyed a two-week vacation here and they were guests of honor at a house party when Munro's entertained friends and relatives.

The Friendly Seniors enjoyed a bus trip to Douglas Point with the Rockwood Sunshine Club.

Mrs. E. Jennings accompanied by her daughter Tina and baby, recently visited Edith's sister, Mrs. Roy Good at Oshawa and helped her celebrate her 80th birthday.

Mrs. Laurene Skerratt, Toronto, has been a guest in the home of Mrs. E. Jennings.

Mrs. Arthur Duffield was guest of honor at a baby shower held at the home of Mrs. E. Jennings and hosted by Dot Jennings and Judy Duffield.

A reminder of the Yard Sale and Baked Goods at the Presbyterian Church here on Saturday, June 18.

Sorry to report Mrs. Ann Funk is again a patient in the hospital.

The ball club has had two wins of late: 8-0 over Carlisle and 6-4 over Rockwood's Blair Construction.

Mother and daughter team of Monika and Donna Meyer took part in both the Scout and Guide Mother's Bake Sale and the Book sale at the library Saturday.

Edith Kamminga looks over a wide selection of books for sale at the Acton Library's book sale Saturday.

Bites fingers, man arrested

A 20-year-old Acton man has been charged with mischief and assault police after an incident on Mill St. early Friday morning. Halton Regional Police say Gavin Murray was charged after two youths were observed letting air out of two front tires of a police cruiser parked in front of the Sit 'N Bull Pub about 1.10 a.m. Murray and a friend, also 20, were both charged with mischief. Murray was also charged with assault police after he allegedly bit two fingers of the arresting officer.

Ospringle

Many winners at Sunday school picnic

by Doris Fines

The congregation of Knox Church found a cool spot for their outdoor service on Sunday at the home of Ward and Flora Bruce. The day began with a barbecue, then the service was held under the trees, followed by races for the children. Winners for some of the races were: 5 and under, Janet Vlietstra; 6 and 7, Jennie Vlietstra; 8 and 9, Tara Cargill, 10 and 11, Janet Sinclair; 12 and 13, Shane Adams; 14 and over Karen Jackson. Three-legged race: 9 and under, Tara Cargill and Rosanne Vlietstra; 10 and over, Vicky Cargill and Karen Jackson. There were other races to try their skills, such as a sack race, backward race, sommersault, bean bag throw and a shoe scramble. Everyone cooled off with ice cream.

Keep in mind the anniversary service of Knox Presbyterian Church. It is next Sunday, June 19 at 11 a.m.

Congratulations to John and Susan Fuller on the arrival of their son Blake Adam, on May 22, a little brother for Amie and another grandson for Stan and Agnes Fuller.

Mrs. Wallace Bruce of Kin-dersley, Saskatchewan is visiting a few days with the Bruce families. She arrived from Ottawa on Sunday, where she was attending the leadership convention.

Byron and Blanche Bruce attended the convocation at Guelph University, when their son Bradley received his Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Economics. Also attending were Miss Leslie Birmingham of Agincourt, Brenda and Bruce and Freeman Rejd of Oshawa. A family dinner was held afterwards, at which Bob and Susan Bruce and family of Burlington were present.

An exchange of plants was held at the Ospringle Ladies' Aid meeting, which was the roll call for June. Mrs. William Rupka was the hostess. Mrs. Mildred Sinclair had the study book, and it dealt with the story of Abraham and Sara. The Devotional was taken by Mrs. Helen Crewson, on Footprints in the Sand. Some poems and readings were given by Mrs. Flora Bruce and Mrs. Mildred Sinclair, for the program.
