

Ladies drop 3 of 4

Acton ladies' softball team managed to take one win in their last four games and lost another squeaker by one run to Hornby. Hillsburgh vanquished the local ladies 8-2 on June 1 on their stamping grounds with Rhonda Hall and Janice Inglis sharing the mound duties for Acton. Mardie Phillips was picked as the MVP for the locals for her offensive and defensive play. Hornby squeezed by Acton in a fixture here June 7 and the score was in doubt until a recount decided Hornby took the win. Acton was losing 12-4 in the bottom of the seventh and came back with seven runs. Triples by Natalie Rusiani, Inglis and Phillips helped the Acton offense. Acton edged Glen Williams ladies two days later by a score of 14-13 in another close game. Phillips hurled most of the game and helped her own cause by belting three doubles. Teresa Dunn and Shelley Young also contributed two base hits. In a replay of a rained out game Hornby outplayed the local ladies at the Hornby ball park, winning 11-4. Inglis took the loss on the mound. The team just couldn't seem to get it together. Susan Poulsen tripled and Inglis and Shelley Young doubled to help the faltering Acton cause. Future games included one last night Tuesday with Erin here, another in Hillsburgh tonight (Wednesday) and the team travels to Georgetown for game under the lights next Monday.

Atoms take two of three

Acton Halton Rural Atom Girls played against Limehouse on the road on June 9, losing 7-4. It was a much better game for Acton than previous outings. Jennifer Foster hit a home run. Acton played Glen Williams on Friday and two home runs each from Tracy Hagan and Tracy Cripps, and one from Leigh Whiting, helped the winning score of 30 to 4 for Acton. The bats for the whole team were going this game. Acton girls played against Omagh on Monday at home and Kim Corkum, Lynn Jaffary, Tracy Hagan, Tammy Barkley-Smith, Kish Killingbeck and Jen Johnston crossed the plate to make the score 7-3 for Acton.

Short week

It was an extremely slow week in Industrial ball with the Oldtimers tourney on the weekend. In games played Fread bounced the A's 12-2 while the Royals topped Furniture 3-1.

Golf tour being planned

Silvercreek Golf centre and McDonald's have joined forces to keep local golf enthusiasts on the go this summer.

The local companies have combined for an annual Monday Golf Outing allowing the local links players to try their hands at different courses.

Each Monday Terry Miskolcz and McDonald's will provide breakfast, bus transportation, prizes, green fees and a golf clinic at one of Ontario's top courses for only $25.

The trips begin next Monday, June 20 with a trip to Bridgewater in Fort Erie. Following that trips to Niagara Parks in Niagara Falls, Horseshoe Valley in Barrie, Golf Haven in Gifford, Westview in Gormley, Hidden Lake in Burlington and Glen Abbe in Oakville. The tour culminates with a Championship Day at Nobleton Lakes in Nobleton.

The Abbey tour and the championship day are slightly different in price. Those wanting to join Terry at Abbey will have to pay $65 while Nobleton will cost $30.

For more information on the tours or actual dates contact the Silvercreek Golf Centre at 877-4445.
