Asks check on permits

Reuben Wepler of Winston Churchill Boulevard wants to know why the Liquor Licence Board of Ontario issued permits for 350 people in the Croatian Centre multi-purpose building when the facility is for 140 people.

He asked Halton Hills council to investigate for him.

Chairman Harry Levy pointed out council does not issue liquor permits, merely comments on them.

Wepler said the Regional Health Department said the capacity was 312 people and the LLBO went along with that figure. He said after he notified them they reduced the number to 140.

Councillor Dave Whiting, a member of the regional health committee said it is the job of the health inspector to find these things out, and promised to investigate the matter for Wepler.
