

Babies zero to three years old were guests of honor at a special Cradle Roll at Knox Presbyterian Church last week. Around the table sit Dixie Tevink and son Matthew, Charmaine Newberry and daughter Crystal, Jane Robertson, and daughter Mary Beth, and Rev. Gerald Rennie. A committee of Renee Watson, Margaret Toth, Anne Moore and Isabel McDonald arranged the day, in which there were balloons for the youngsters and afternoon tea for mothers. Secretary Helen Jocque poured tea.

Knox Presbyterian Church held a garage sale Saturday and this trio of Herb Price, Mary Watson and Jim Smith worked hard selling items.

Bernice Neeb, Janet MacDonald and Donna Henry were busy at the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church sale Saturday.

Honey Pot Nursery held an open house and registration recently. Michael and Sandy Saccoccia got to try some of the fun toys with nursery school operator Gloria Simmons and daughter Jalia Simmons-Finlay.

Correction

Richard Baker, R.R. 2 Rockwood, who pleaded guilty to possession of a narcotic in Milton Provincial Court recently is facing no further charges, as reported in last week's paper. The Free Press discovered this error after publication of last week's issue. We apologize for any inconvenience or embarrassment this may have caused.

Cancel fire call

Firefighters responded to a grass fire at Five Sideroad and 25 Highway, but the owners handled the fire and the call was cancelled.

Family traditions followed

Following generations of family wedding traditions, Blaire Diane Smith and Gerald Ross Rennie were married in Trinity United Church May 14. Rev. Chuck Beaton returned to town from Hamilton to assist Andy King with the noon marriage ceremony. Blaire is the daughter of Lorne and Sally Smith, 24 Rosemary Rd., and Ross is the son of Gerald and Joyce Rennie, 67 Churchill Rd. North. Ebel Denny provided the organ music, and Doug and Ruth Kellough sang throughout the ceremony. Wearing her mother's wedding gown, Blaire came down the aisle to Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven, the same song as her mother walked down the aisle to. Given to marriage by her father, the bride's gown was of ivory Bridal Satin and Chantilly Lace. Long lily point sleeves accented the gown, as did sequins on the neck. Chantilly Lace on the bodice went into the skirt in star pattern, and a long flowing Cathedral train. A Juliet cap held a finger tip veil of French Illusion. She carried Soya roses with fuchsia. She also wore a diamond lavalier that her grandmother and mother wore on their wedding days. Blaire's best friend, Lynn Crawford, Rockwood, was her maid of honor. Her sister, Shayne Balfour, Barrie, was bridesmaid. They carried flowers identical to the bride's. The groom's brother, David Rennie was bestman, and the bride's brother Paul Smith was usher. A small luncheon for immediate family was held at Someplace Else in Huttonville and a reception was held June 5 at the bride's parents home. Guests admired a cake made by the bride's mother, and decorated by Kay Hart. Blaire and Ross used the same knife to cut the cake as her mother and sister did. Prior to her marriage, Blaire was guest of honor at two showers put on by her bridal attendants, and Kay Hart. Laurie Cook was in charge of the flowers.

Blaire Smith and Ross Rennie were married May 14 in Trinity United Church. A reception was held June 5 at the home of the bride's parents.

Christine Theresa Arbie graduated with honours from Guelph University, College of Family and Consumer Studies, and received her Bachelor of Applied Science degree on June 3. Christine attended M.Z. Bennett public school and Acton High School. She is the daughter of Ray and Rena Arbie of Acton.
