

The Guelph Salvation Army Band entertained residents and guests at Eden House Sunday afternoon. There were various activities for the elderly marking the end of senior citizens' week. Residents made cheese dishes in ceramics class and there was a draw for their wares with the proceeds going to the Heart Fund.

Terry Cole wins tourney

by Mrs. G. MacDougall
Sensie Terry Cole, local Karate instructor, recently won first place trophy for blackbelt lightweight division in Woodstock Tournament and fourth place in Brampton for Canadian International Competition. Congratulations!!

The Community Club monthly meetings are closed for July and August.

Mrs. Judy Duffield recently hosted a baby shower for Mrs. Cindy Fickling. This happy event was at the home of Mrs. E. Jennings.

Mrs. Joyce Milton of England has arrived for a two week visit with Mrs. Edith Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cole and child were recent visitors with Jim's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cole. Jim has completed his Armed Forces duty in Baden Baden, Germany, and will now be stationed in Halifax.

Mrs. Betty Marshall recently enjoyed a two-week visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Peggy and Cliff Abram of Vancouver Island, B.C. While there, Betty and Peggy visited with a former resident of this village, Val Barrow.

Betty was just home for a few days when her and Peggy's mother, Mrs. Fred Smith, passed away in St. Joseph's Continuing Care Unit in Guelph. Deepest sympathy is expressed to Betty, Peggy and their families in their bereavement of a dear mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Judy Campbell, Sundridge, was a visitor with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bould and attended her cousin's wedding with them and her sister and brother-in-law Michelle and Ron Hamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott have returned from a vacation up at the French River.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Freda Thompson who suffered an unfortunate fall and has been a patient in Collingwood Hospital with some broken bones in one arm and cuts to her head. Best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Gwen Banks, Oakville, spent a weekend with her family, Dave, Sharyn and Mark Banks.

Rev. Russell Finley and his wife were honored at a farewell gathering on Sunday, when the three charges, Arkell, Ebenezer and Eden Mills met in the Community Hall here for Rev. Finley's retirement service.

Following the worship a bountiful luncheon was enjoyed and all adjourned to the park for a picnic.

Rev. Finley has faithfully served his three churches for the past 16 years and will retire to Guelph. Howard James, Bob Fitton and John Kitching, representing the different charges, presented Rev. Finley with a pair of bronze bookends, pen and holder and purse of money. He also received a picture of the combined choirs, Ebenezer Church and an album of the Sunday School children. Betty Green and Audrey Kitching presented Mrs. Finley with a lovely plate, "Julie", hand painted by local artist, Greta Neubacher.

Best wishes for happy healthy retirement years go with Rev. and Mrs. Finley.

Beef dinner for graduates

by Doris Fines
The staff of the extended care unit of Groves Memorial Community Hospital in Fergus, hosted a pot luck family picnic on Saturday, in honor of Senior Citizens' week. Mrs. Orma Ferguson and Doris Fines, along with their sister Mrs. Audrey Henderson of Belwood, were guests. Their mother Mrs. Thomas Fines and the other patients who were able to participate, enjoyed having their families join them for this pleasant outdoor picnic.

Stan and Agnes Fuller attended the christening ceremony last Sunday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Hillsburgh, of their grandchildren, Cheryl Kathleen Baldwin and David John Stanley Baldwin, children of Neil and Gail Baldwin of Hillsburgh. The family were all entertained after the service, for dinner at Baldwin's, including Bill Fuller, John and Susan Fuller and their children Amie and Blake Adam, of Ospringle.

Rev. Wayne Allen gave his first communion to the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. In the absence of the organist, Mrs. Blanche Bruce supplied the music for the service.

Norman and Hilda McKenzie attended the Usherwood reunion on Saturday. It was held at Eramosa school on the Rockwood line. Games and baseball were enjoyed.

The basement of Knox Church was nicely decorated on Wednesday, in honor of the grade 7 graduating class, who along with their parents and the school staff, enjoyed a beef dinner. Brian Thomas was valedictorian. Mr. Sanders highlighted the students in a poem "Ode to Grade 7". Various awards were presented, then the grade 7's went back to the school for games and dancing, while the parents visited or played cards.

Request farm help house

Edith Hilfman, R.R. 4 Acton, has applied to Halton Hills to have a second farm dwelling built on her property.

The extra house is for farm help to assist in re-establishing agriculture, potential sheep and crops, on the subject property," a Town staff report says.

Monday Halton Hills council received a brief report from staff indicating Mrs. Hilfman has applied for a bylaw amendment to permit the second farm house and her plan is now being reviewed.

Crash in Rockwood

There was an estimated $625 damages to two vehicles which were involved in a collision on Highway 7 in Rockwood Thursday at 5.25 p.m.

Alessandro Stocco, 34, of Rockwood, and Francis Papillon, 20, of Acton, were the drivers involved. Guelph OPP report. Neither driver was injured but there was $425 damage to the Stocco vehicle and $200 for the Papillon car.
