The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario

Alastair (Sandy) Skinner, FCA

Alastair (Sandy) Skinner of Toronto was elected president of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario for 1983-84 at the Institute's Annual General Meeting, held June 13 in Windsor. Mr. Skinner is the managing partner of the Toronto office of MacGillivray & Co.

Joe Bones of Ottawa, Ward Mallette's Ontario executive partner, was elected first vice-president and Seymour Wigle of Toronto, a senior partner and director of technical services of Price Waterhouse, was elected second vice-president.

Other members elected to the Institute's Executive Committee are: Peter Held, Toronto, secretary; Will Wilkinson, Trenton, treasurer; Harold Hetherington, Toronto, assistant treasurer; Don Beach, North York, and Naju Shuff, Toronto, Executive Committee members-at-large.

The other members of the 25-member Institute Council are: Stewart Axford, Scarborough; John Bakker, Hamilton; Philip Bookham, North Bay; Alan Care, St. Catharines; Ron Gage, Toronto; Taylor Gilbert, Toronto; Grace Gochelle, Georgetown; Ross Johnston, Windsor; Jean-Paul Latendresse, Ottawa; Ron McNeill, Windsor; Allen Scott, Woodstock; Norman Scott, Toronto; Grant Thompson, Thunder Bay; Albert Vangelisti, Agincourt; Ross Walker, Toronto; Ron Wilson, Oshawa; Bill Wilham, Lindsay.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario is one of the oldest and largest of Ontario's professional bodies. Founded in 1879, the Institute, under the Public Accountancy Act, is the sole qualifying body for licensing in public accountancy in Ontario. In addition to being responsible for the education and training of Ontario's Chartered Accountants, the Institute, a self-regulating body under the Chartered Accountants Act, is also responsible for the professional conduct and discipline of its 17,000 members and 5,000 students. The development of professional standards and the advancement of the accounting discipline are other prime responsibilities of the Institute.

107 pints at blood clinic

Donations of blood at last week's blood donor clinic dropped drastically from the year before, with 118 people coming out this year, compared to 162 in June, 1982.

Of the 118 people who showed up at the Legion to give blood, 11 were rejected.

The Acton Unit of the Red Cross Society greatly appreciates all those who came out and extends thanks to this clinic's sponsor, Acton Travel Ltd. Words of thanks also went out to the Legion Ladies, all the volunteers and Halton Hills Furniture and Appliances for the use of their sign.

Following are those who donated a pint of blood Tuesday:

J.D. Ancker, C.H. Auger, C.I. Baginski, G.W. Bannon, J.E. Bannon, C.A. Baker, N.T. Brownell, H.E. Budgett, N. Brada, P. Brown, N. Brown, S.P. Caswell, G.O. Coats, K.E. Coats, W.D. Coats, C.R. Renata, Laura, Maria, and Joey Brillinger are pleased to announce the graduation of their mother, Margaret, from University of Toronto on June 7. Margaret received the Doctor of Education degree majoring in Adult Education. She is in private practice as an educational consultant and therapist. She leads training programs and courses in personal and interpersonal effectiveness for boards of education, businesses, organizations, churches, and professional groups. She also engages in individual and couple therapy in Toronto and Acton.

Joan McKnight and Joan Ford are two of the many volunteers who worked hard at the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic Tuesday.

Fatal crash Mon.

For almost two hours Monday afternoon, police blocked off the area around Five Sidewalk and Sixth Line after a two-car accident in which an 18-year-old Milton woman was killed.

Police say passenger in one of the cars, Jane Simmons of 417 Highside Drive, died after the collision, reported at about 3.10 p.m.
