Beardmore retirement

After 41 years on the job, Ruby Waterhouse is going to spend her retirement from Beardmore Tannery "trying to find a hobby."

Mrs. Waterhouse started at Beardmore in August 1942 as a typist. Until her retirement last Thursday, she worked in a variety of areas. After six months as a typist and doing some filing, she moved on to invoicing and orders and other jobs. Four years ago that work went on computer and she worked for the purchasing department until last week.

Even though she's enjoyed working at Beardmore, she is looking forward to her retirement. She plans to do some travelling. An Acton native, Mrs. Waterhouse attended Acton schools, and the Guelph Business College.
