

Monteiro-Robinson vows translated to Portuguese

Linda Robinson and Joe Monteiro were married in Holy Cross Catholic Church in June. After a honeymoon in Niagara Falls they made their home in Galt.

With the rite of marriage being translated into Portuguese by Jeremias Pacheco, Linda Carol Robinson and Joe Armando Monteiro exchanged vows in Holy Cross Catholic Church, Georgetown, June 11.

Rev. D.R. Cote officiated at the double ring ceremony with Winston Robinson as organist and Anna Burke singing three solos. Father Robert Moore, a close friend of the bride's grandparents was a surprise guest and co-celebrant at the ceremony. Denise Sheppard, Cambridge, cousin of the bride gave the first and second readings. A wedding program was given to each guest at the church with special thanks on the last page from the bride and groom.

Linda is the daughter of Ron and Carol Robinson, 37 Churchill Rd. N., and Joe is the son of Antonio and Maria Monteiro, Galt.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Linda wore a gown with a chiffon skirt, a bodice covered in silk knit chiffon overlaid with tiny seed pearls. The sheer full sleeves were accented with delicate lace design and ending with lily point cuffs. A full flowing train with lace design complemented the gown. A lace cap with tiny seed pearls held a full-length flowing veil sprinkled with lace flowers. She carried a bouquet of white roses surrounded by white baby's breath and dotted with pastel blue satin ribbons.

The bride's sister, Lorraine Robinson, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were two other sisters, Susan and Rebecca, and the groom's sisters, Theresa and Nancy Monteiro, both of Galt.

The attendants wore pastel blue satin dresses with delicate lace on the bodice and full elbow length sleeves.

The maid of honor wore a headpiece of white silk baby's breath in her hair and the bridesmaids wore two blue flowers in their hair. They carried white carnations surrounded by blue baby's breath.

Cousin of the groom, Jennifer Pereira of Galt was the flowergirl. She wore a long white gown of polyester chiffon over taffeta with long sleeves and carried a basket of white carnations with a blue satin ribbon. She wore a headpiece of white silk baby's breath.

Darryl Cabral, Galt, was his friend's best man. Ushers were Ron Robinson, Acton, brother of the bride; Dan McGilloway, Acton, friend of the bride and groom; Joe Medeiros, friend of the groom; and Dennis Cabral, cousin of the groom, both from Galt. Michael Braga was the ringbearer.

Following the ceremony guests attended a dinner and dance at the Bayerischer-Hof in Milton. At 11 p.m. a buffet was served. The bride's uncle, Dennis Finch, Houston, Texas, was master of ceremonies, and a special word and toast was made in Portuguese to the groom's parents.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Lionel and Floria Chenette, Mississauga; Dennis and Huguette Finch, the bride's aunt (and godmother) and uncle from Texas; Ted Chenette, great uncle of the bride, Temagami, Ontario; Mrs. Flora Mayer and Debbie Mayor, aunt and cousin of the bride's mother, Sturgeon Falls; Guy Chenette and wife Lisa, godfather of the bride, Mississauga; Father Moore, Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Toronto; aunt of the groom, Mrs. F. Chaves, Winnipeg, Manitoba; Manuel and Theresa Resendes, cousins of the groom, Winnipeg; godfather of the groom John Monteiro, Massachusetts. Two showers were held for the bride by Lorraine Robinson, at the bride's home, and Maria and Theresa Monteiro, in Galt. Darryl Cabral held a stag in Rockwood for the groom. A rehearsal party was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Burning bag is tossed in house

A home on Willow Street sustained minor smoke damage, scorched floor and walls recently after a brown paper bag was set on fire inside the house.

Police say one of the residents at 14 Willow Street heard a car pull up outside and the hallway door close at about 10:50 p.m.

About 30 minutes later, residents smelled smoke and on the main floor they found a brown paper bag with two pop cans inside and other merchandise which had been set on fire.

No estimate of damage has been given and the fire department was not called.

Yugoslavs get liquor permit

Halton Hills Council has given permission for a liquor permit for a picnic this weekend at the Yugoslav Centre south of Acton since there were no noise complaints after the July 3 picnic.

A report from bylaw enforcement officer Jack Lusty stated about 1,000 people attended the July 3 picnic and beer and liquor were sold from a "closed structure" on the property.

Lusty said there were paid off-duty policemen on the property from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Lusty and the officers visited the Third Line where residents have repeatedly complained about noise from the Yugoslav centre the past two summers. They found the Third Line area was "free of excessive noise" on July 3.

He said the police received no complaints and agreed with him "that the event was being held in such a manner as to not disturb the abutting property owners."

Lusty said having police on the property helps a lot and suggested council make it a condition of supporting the liquor permit applications at all such events that off-duty police be hired.

Nick Cajic, spokesman for the Yugoslav centre, said this Sunday's picnic will only attract about 200 visitors and he felt off-duty policemen weren't needed, adding he couldn't hire just one officer because the police require that two be on the site. He said if police wanted to come to the property to check noise or anything else they'd be welcomed.

Councillor Pam Sheldon said neighbors weren't going to complain about noise, even if there had been noise, after the last picnic because they wanted to co-operate and knew the July 3 event was the big gathering of the summer.

Brownies get Golden Hands

Ten Indian princesses earned their Brownie Golden Hands and flew up to Guides on Thursday. The girls received three feathers for their Indian headband for the three things they wanted to remember about Brownies. Wrapped in an Indian Blanket, Eileen Coleman, Jennifer Botting, Bonnie Campbell, Tara Cargill, Heather Hammond, Terri Leslie, Deanna Louth, Joanne Scott, Jennifer Sutherland and Jodie Reid flew up to Guides to receive another feather. Other girls received their golden bars and golden ladders.

Bonnie Campbell won a special award for perfect attendance for all three years. The evening ended with a powwow, and a special cake, baked by Mrs. Ridley, was enjoyed by all.

Celebrate everything on one day and have one big party, was good planning by Lloyd and Doris Boyd, when about 30 relatives gathered at their home for the Boyd reunion on Saturday. It was also Lloyd's and Doris's wedding anniversary, and Lloyd's birthday. He shared his birthday cake with granddaughter Kim Jefferson of Fergus, who turned 10 years old the next day, July 10.

Among those present were Lloyd's two brothers, Jerry Boyd of Deseronto, and Fred Boyd and wife Gladys of Mississauga, and a sister Margaret Wolfe and her husband Michael of Unionville. Other relatives came from Scarborough and Toronto. They had an enjoyable day playing horseshoes and other games.

Jim and Greg Ross, who have been going to Cadets all winter in Guelph, have now gone to Camp Ipperwash for six weeks of Cadet leadership training, in the 14 to 18 age group.
