Eden Mills

Rev. Doehring back to work

by Mrs. W. MacDougall

Karate registration for the coming season will take place at the Eden Mills Community Hall on Sunday August 28 from 1 to 4 p.m. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Vince Montgomery on the arrival of a grandson, proud parents are Marlene and Tony Klimkosz Guelph. Congratulations also to Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow who are the happy grandparents of a new grandson.

Rev. Carrie Doehring, Mark and son Jordan have returned from an enjoyable month's vacation in High Wycombe, England, where they visited with relatives and friends.

Recent visitors with Manse and Joan Lowrie were Bea Birch, Jack Archibald, Stacy and Cyle Wall of Toronto.

Alarms activated

Firefighters rushed to the Acton arena Saturday evening at 9.30. Deputy fire chief Bob Hyde says the alarm was activated as a result of the storm. He also suspects Monday's storm activated the alarm at Hornby Box and Pallett on Main St. N. at 1.45 p.m. There was no fire in either case.

Car is stolen

Guelph OPP are still investigating the theft and subsequent smash-up of a 1981 Pontiac from the garage of Darryl Nichol, R.R. 4, Rockwood.

Police say someone entered the Nichol home and took $6 worth of quarters from a bedroom. The person then entered the garage and took the car. Police recovered the vehicle 20 minutes later near Bruceville. It had been rolled over, causing $2,000 damage.

The suspect escaped through the bushes, before police arrived.

Scarborough man bounces off trees

Travelling east on the First Line, Gary Gascoigne, of Scarborough lost control of his car on a sharp curve and hit three trees. He bounced off and hit the trees again.

Damage to the car is estimated at $3,500. Both the driver and a passenger, Linda Lazier, were taken to Georgetown hospital with minor injuries.
