The Inter-County season is drawing to a close with only one fixture left to play in both the mixed league and the ladies' league.

On July 28, Acton visited Gordon Alcott in the mixed. Part way through the evening, the rains came down and two of the matches had to be replayed later. In these replays Chris Steen with Marcia Gregg and Scotty Hibbard with Ken Kavanagh both won to produce a 3-3 tie in total matches played.

A week later, on August 4, Regency Racquet visited Acton and returned home almost empty handed as our club won 5-1.

The finest mixed fixture is Thursday evening, August 11, when Bramalea visit Acton.

Our ladies Inter-County team gained a couple of 2-2 ties in their last two fixtures, at Brampton on July 27 and against Central Park at home on August 3.

The club doubles tournament is under way this week with the finals due on the August 13, 14 weekend if all goes according to plan. Stay tuned for results.

Willow Lane bats potent

Willow Lane Natural Foods beat Hammond Sewing Centre 28-19 in exhibition T-Ball action last Wednesday at Sir Donald Mann Park. Hammond Sewing loaned the opposition two players in order to field a full team.

It helped, because Willow Lane's bats were potent. Troy MacDougall, Donny Haines, Brian McCallum, and Brad Hammond all crossed the plate four times for the winners. Steven Toth, Kevin Paisley, Matthew Smith, and Justin Elder grabbed additional runs in the game.

Dale Hewitt counted four runs for Hammond Sewing. Other scores went to Kari Ferguson, Jacob Evans, Kent Stuckey, Emma Cass, Debbie Swinamer, and Stewart Ginn.

Gold shades Green

Gold shaded Green 3-2 in ball hockey play July 26 at the Community Centre.

Brian Bilton netted a pair of markers for the winners in this one, with Bernie Kerner adding the other. Paul Holman, Bert Fuller, and Paul Bilton contributed assists.

John Miller scored one of the Green markers. The other goal-scorer was not provided.

Blue doubled Orange 4-2 in other action.

Danny Tremblay fired a pair for winners, with Hughie MacDonald and Paul Dodds grabbing lone goals. Assists went to Tremblay, Dodds, and Scott Allonby—each with a pair, and Scott McDonough.

For Orange, it was Jim Rowsell and Ray Dunbar pocketing goals. Assists were contributed by both Dunbar and Rowsell, on each other's goals.

Orange dropped another one last Tuesday evening, as they were defeated by Gold 6-1.

Brian Bilton and Ken Death each had hat tricks for the winners. Paul Bilton and David Robinson both had three assists, while Fuller, Brian Bilton, and Holman added lone aids.

Rowsell, on a pass from Rick Bonnette and Dunbar, had the only Orange goal of the contest.

Black got past Blue 5-3 in other ball-hockey play last week.

Kent Kentner and Rob Evans both had a pair of goals for the winners. Terry Winters fired the other marker. Brian Demone passed for two assists in the game, with singles going to Floyd Hillier, Graig Andrews, Ron Turkosz, Brad Demone, and Ted Salt.

Tremblay netted a pair of first-period goals for Blue. McDonough rounded out the scoring. Peter Wright and Mike Quinn had assists.

Leathertown downed 2-1

Acton's league-leading Leathertown Men's Soccer Club dropped their first game of the season Saturday. They were defeated 2-1 by S.N.A.P.S. in a very physical contest.

Jamie Taras counted the lone Acton marker on a header off a corner kick.

The team's next game is scheduled for this Saturday.
