

Linesmen do well

Two apprentice linesmen have been hired full-time by the Halton Hills Hydro Commission.

Len Medland and Brad Miller have both successfully completed the necessary courses and apprenticeship period, the commission learned at their meeting Friday morning. In fact, general manager Jerry Trudell noted, Brad Miller came in at the top of his class in the examinations.

The commission also approved the hiring of Linda Moriarity as switchboard operator. Trudell pointed out there were 72 applications and Ms. Moriarity had experience on the type of machines Hydro has. She will start September 26.

Ballinamad

The community was shocked and deeply saddened this past weekend when a drowning accident occurred. Little 4 year old Craig Harvey Burt, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burt, was invited on Saturday afternoon, with several other children, to a pool party at a neighbors. It being a very hot day, no doubt the children were all enjoying themselves and never noticed the little boy until it was too late. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the parents and families at this time in their great loss of a loved one.

This past weekend Morgan Madill celebrated his 80th birthday quietly at his home, with his wife and family including his grandchildren, Lori Ann and Jimmy. Mrs. Price and Betty Cunningham were present also.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wright were at Newmarket on Sunday where they visited with a relative, Mrs. Margaret Wright.

Danny Wright has just returned from an agricultural tour of the States. He went to Colorado, Kentucky, Kansas and other places of interest and enjoyed it very much. Danny has just started his final year at the O.A.C. Guelph University. Other young people continuing their studies are, Ron Koperdraad who is taking a business course in Windsor, Rene Schwarz is taking his last Semester in Georgetown High and is expecting to be through in January. Sister Helen is continuing with her study of languages at university and its hard to believe that the youngest member of the Schwarz family is attending the senior school at Stewarttown.

We must not forget the little tots who will start out eager and anxious to begin the new environment of school. Some of the beginners are Christy Ann Pinkerton, Glen Sanderson and Andrew Munro. They will be attending kindergarten class in area schools shortly.

Ashley Bird is attending a private school for boys at Elora this year. We wish continued success for all of our young people. Mr. and Mrs. Walker entertained a number of his business acquaintances from the city and other friends at their home in the village on Saturday afternoon. In spite of the hot day they enjoyed a corn roast and a ride in the hay wagon to the Country Store.

Attendance was up at church on Sunday. Sunday School commenced again after the summer recess.

Rev. Bandy had a thought provoking message for those attending. It was on the "Affirmation of Faith."

To be a good christian one must have complete faith in God, whose Wisdom, Power and Love will direct one's life for peace of mind and service to others.
