

Lovely ladies

Miss Acton Fall Fair Laura Jansen, centre, presents first place twins Tracey and Tasha Pinkerton with their ribbons. She is assisted by her first runner-up Melanie Cooper while the twins' mother Linda looks on.

Kristen Ross took the girls' 13-18 month class. Mom Cathy was pretty proud.

Jordon Grenke won the boys' 0-3 months. That's Mom Lorraine with him.

Winner of the girls' 7 to 12 months was Leanne Hiltz, with mother Diana.

Baby Show

Linda Ellis was more interested in playing with her ribbon for winning the girls' 4 to 6 months than in getting her picture taken. Mom Linda looks on.

Christopher van Vliet, winner of the boys' 4 to 6 months, tried to eat his ribbon while Mom Wendy looks on.

Carris Culver, complete with a black leather jacket, took top honors in the boys' 13-18 months. That's Mom Melanie with him.

Future Miss Acton? Sara Kruk won the girls' 0-3 months class. Mom Laurie entered her.

Troy McGregor wasn't at all impressed with his first place win in the boys' 7 to 12 months. Mom Georgina tried to wake him up, but to no avail.

Melanie Cooper (first runner-up)

Donna Williams (second runner-up)

Debbie Bartels

Cathy Beechan

Donna Mitchell

Shirley Van Ryk

Lorraine Robinson

Alanna Bowen

Patty Stone

Kim Hachey

Double Trouble was no trouble to enjoy at the fair.

Capt. Bill James gets some help for his magical tricks from a member of the audience David Harrison.

That's entertainment

There was talent galore Friday night

The Leaky Family entertains.

Photos by Mark Holmes, Ted Brown, Helen Murray and Gord Murray

Former Miss Actons were back for the 20th anniversary. They are from l. to r. Linda Wilson (Ferguson), Maggie Hall (Given), Brenda Hillier (Spear), Cathy Smith, Anita Thibodeau, Val McPhail (Mitchell), Ann Davies (Lutz), Chody Carrie (McGilheway) and last year's queen Lisa Petty.