

Otto Jelinek, Arlene Bruce and Julian Reed rode in the parade.

The Y's float promoted a Tots and Moms' program.

For a change the mayor and all three Acton councillors were going in the same direction.

Just clowning around.

The figure skaters' float.

The sounds of the Citizens' Band.

Fair parade

Pac Man lives.

Bella Mae Roszell.

Acton Outlets Club.

Citizen of the Year Ted Tyler was in the parade.

Photos by Mark Holmes, Ted Brown, Helen Murray, and Gord Murray

Swimming Stars of Acton.

Life when the fair was born.

The Pentecostal Church had a float.

Rick Bonnette of the Councillors.

Pauline Barlow of the Service Club's team.

Dave Mashinter of the Teachers.

Acton's Citizen of the Year Ted Tyler puts a stopper to a compromising situation for the Businessmen's team. His team came in seventh out of eight teams.

Heather Whiting of the Sorority team.

Challenge of the Acton Stars

Fred Archibald for the Curling Club.

Pat Godgeon of the Teachers.

Pam Sheldon and Peter Cass representing council and the service clubs.

A bruised ankle and a bumped head were in vain for June Jansen of the Free Press team. Although she won both heats in the creeper competition, her time placed her third overall. June is the mother of Miss Acton Fall Fair, Laura Jansen.

Doug Ferguson of the Firefighters.