

Liberal leader on cable T.V.

Ontario Hydro's nuclear power program is probed as "David Peterson's Ontario" launches its second season next week on cable television outlets across the province. Halton Cable TV will run on Mondays at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Arthur Porter, Chairman of the former Royal Commission on Electric Power Planning, is the first guest as the Opposition Leader discusses issues affecting the citizens of Ontario.

A proponent of the expanded use of nuclear power as a force for the generation of electrical energy, Dr. Porter claims Ontario residents have nothing to fear from the continued dependence on reactors. Mr. Peterson, meanwhile, has called for suspension of Hydro's nuclear power program and a calling to account for the corporation's mounting indebtedness.

The two programs mark the opening of the second 36-show series in which the Liberal Leader in Ontario discusses issues of the day with community leaders and opinion-shapers.

Guests during the upcoming season include author and broadcaster Charles Templeton, Cliff Pilkey, President of the Ontario Federation of Labour, futurist John Kettle, Milton Harris, President of the Canadian Jewish Congress, Senator Keith Davey, Mrs. Kay Fletcher, Ontario President, Canadian Pensioners Concerned, former athlete "Whipper" Billy Watson, Toronto Mayor Art Eggleton, Bernard Shapiro, Director for the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, lawyer and author Linda Silver-Dranoff, writer Arnold Edinburgh, Brian Grey, Vice-President, Canadian Federation of Independent Business and Archeologist Roberta O'Brien.

Georgetown Alliance Church was well represented at a "Mod Bash" recently sponsored by the Alliance Church in Stone Creek with Janice McCaugherty (far right) and Sean Smith (far left) participating in the fun. Many youth groups participated in the events which, according to one Georgetown spectator, would have been a great event for Oscar the Grouch.

Art at Gallery "The Good Earth"

As an added treat for the week long celebration of the second birthday of Halton Hills Cultural Centre, an exhibition of art entitled "The Good Earth" celebrating Thanksgiving will open October 6 and run until November 12 in the gallery.

At the show, residents for the first time will have the chance to see paintings owned by Halton Hills Library Board, as well as works of 30 other Canadian artists.

The library-owned paintings, purchased in 1973, but not hung publicly until now, due in part of the building of the new library and the temporary relocation during that time, consist of "Bobaled" by Ken Danby, "Pears and Plums" by Frances Johnston, "Summer on Brags Island" by David Blackwood, "Blue Moose" by John Boyle and "High Summer" by the late Marjorie Nazer. The latter was purchased for the library by friends of the artist to mark her retirement from her position as librarian. In addition four Eskimo sculptures are owned by the library. The collection purchased for less than $2,000 now has an estimated market value of more than $10,000.

"The Good Earth" exhibition organized and arranged by John Sommer, depicts the seasons of the year either in landscapes, man within his natural environment; or fruit and flowers.

The artworks in the exhibition have been loaned from the library, from private Georgetown collections, from the artists and from Gallery House Sol. Almost half of them will be for sale.

Among the noted artists whose works will be shown are Alex Colville, Barker Fairley, Katja Jacobs, Frieda Nelson, Jack Reid, Geoffrey Rock, Takahama, Rosemary Kilbourne, Walker Phillips, John Revell, and local artists Frank Black, Gretchen Day, Reginald Finlayson, Vallery Mokryzski, and Jo Walterman.

The exhibition will be officially opened at reception, Thursday, October 6 from 7 until 9 p.m. Admission is free and the public is welcome.
