Over 100 at Area Revel

Over 100 Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders from Rockwood, Eramosa, Osprings and Eden Mills joined together for a Revel, a fun day at Rockwood Conservation Area. The individual units hiked and explored parts of the park area. After lunch, the girls joined together for games and tracking and stalking activities. A few even managed to get lost following a trail through the woods. After regrouping, there was time for a sing song before going home, maybe a little tired but having had a fun day.

Biffis-Wyga wed in Sept.

A canoeing honeymoon through Algonquin Park followed the wedding ceremony of Sandy Agnes Wyga and William Rudy John Biffis, September 24.

Rockwood Presbyterian Church was the setting for the wedding, with Rev. Carrie Doehring officiating.

Sandy is the daughter of Dick and Agnes Wyga, RR 2 Acton and is a retail clerk at Acton Photo and Camera. Bill is the son of Rudy and Laurine Biffis, RR 2 Acton, and is employed as a woodworker with R. Charette Custom Carpentry, Acton.

Given in marriage by her parents, Sandy wore a long white gown with a train attached to the waist, and a hat with a veil. The gown was made by the sister-in-law of the groom, Sue Biffis.

Sandra Timmerman, the bride's best friend, was Matron of Honor, and Laurie Biffis, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid. Flowergirls were Erin Wyga and Maria Nap, nieces of the bride.

The maid of honor's and the bridesmaid's mid-length, burgundy dresses had matching jackets. Their gowns were made by their mothers. The flowergirls wore long burgundy dresses with white pinafores and were made by Erin's mother.

Brian Biffis, brother of the groom, was best man, with Fred Wyga, brother of the bride as usher. Ringbearer was Joel Biffis, younger brother of the groom.

At an evening dinner and dance at the Rockwood Town Hall, Otto Wyga, the bride's brother, was master of ceremonies. Toasts were given by the best man, the groom, the fathers of the bride and groom, brother-in-law of the groom and brother of the bride.

Many members of the Cedarvale Inn were in attendance at the ceremony and reception, as well as guests from Acton, Rockwood, Hillsburgh, Milton, Brampton, Georgetown, Mississauga, Guelph and London.

Prior to her marriage, Sandy was guest of honor at two miscellaneous showers hosted by: Sandra Timmerman and Laurie Biffis, at the home of the bride's mother; and Diane Hurgett, at her home in Rockwood. She was also feted with a luncheon at "La Vieille Auberge" given by her neighbors.

A stag was held for the groom by the best man at the Rockwood Town Hall.

The couple is now living at RR 2 Acton.

Sandy Wyga and Bill Biffis were married in Rockwood, September 24.

Knox Ladies' Aid

by Laura Dennis

"Such a busy world" was the verse used in opening the meeting of Knox Ladies' Aid by their President Mrs. Harry Murray recently.

Devotions were taken by Mrs. Russell Murray reading the Scripture and Mrs. C. Armstrong leading in prayer. Interesting answers were given to the Roll Call "A T.V. Commercial I enjoy."

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Armstrong read the monthly report, followed by the treasurer's report.

A committee composed of Mrs. H. Beasley, Mrs. D.S. Morrison and Mrs. B. Macpherson were named to look into procuring some articles for the church kitchen and hall. Authorization will be requested from the session to do some work in the church hall. Mrs. C. Armstrong gave a reading "It's not my age". Mrs. H. Murray and Mrs. C. M. Davidson were the winners in the contest.

Crash on Trafalgar

A three car collision on Trafalgar Rd. October 13, resulted in damage to two cars, including one driven by Acton area resident, Ronald Pettibone, 40, of Lot 17, Concession 4.

A car was stopped for a stop sign at 10 Sideroad and Trafalgar Rd. facing west. The driver pulled out and turned south on Trafalgar. A second vehicle, southbound on Trafalgar, swerved to avoid the first car, and a collision ensued with a third vehicle that was northbound on Trafalgar. There were no injuries.

The other vehicles were driven by Diane Wilson, 16, of 14 Chelvin Dr. Georgetown, and Steven Ettinger, 29, of Oakville.

The Pettibone car had $1,000 damage as did the Ettinger vehicle.

$10,195*. Just as there are two sides to every person, there are two sides to every Rabbit GTI.

A sensible side, economy-wise and efficient. A thoughtful consumer, the GTI literally sips gasoline at a mere 7.9 L/100 km.

The sensory side, hedonistic and fun-seeking. The GTI's alter ego is one of excitement and power. To get behind the wheel is to sit back, brace yourself, and revel in the performance.

A 1.8 litre performance engine and silky smooth close ratio 5-speed gear box whisk you from 0-80 km/h in only 7.2 seconds. While performance calibrated springs and shocks, stabilizer bars and Pirelli P-6 radials pull the road right into your hands.

No, the GTI is not for the faint of heart or the meek.

It is everything you've come to expect of a Volkswagen. And everything you could ever want in a car.

*Based on manufacturer's suggested retail price. Options, pre-delivery inspection and freight extra. Dealer may sell for less.
Comparative rating based on Transport Canada test methods for the GTI. Consult the Transport Canada Fuel Consumption Guide for further details.

Household Hints
From Pauline McNelly

Some folks save storage space by placing out of season blankets between mattresses and box springs. Be sure they're spread evenly, for comfortable sleeping.

Put white toothpaste on spots and stains in permanent press clothes. Rinse and repeat if necessary. Don't launder as you usually do.

Cardboard's trick: mark the locations of personal photos with bright colored photo gel tape. Help you find bulbs that must be replaced or stored, and keep you from putting in new bulbs on top of old.
