

Dublin WI

Linda Lamont tells of paper's beginning

by Laura Dennis
 Mrs. Harry Besley, Road 12, Halton Hills, (Esqueping) was hostess for the October meeting of Dublin Women's Institute with a good attendance of members and one guest.
 Presiding was Mrs. David Hunter, president, and she opened the meeting with the humorous verse "What is a cow", followed by the singing of the Institute Ode, and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect.
 "What I liked about the Fall Fair" was the subject of the roll-call and was called by Mrs. J. McLean and all were pleased with different aspects of the exhibits, and generally felt that the exhibits were outstanding.
 A fine report of the meeting of the Esqueping Historical Society held in Knox Church, Georgetown, the previous evening, was given by Mrs. J. Kranendonk, a member of the Branch Tweedsmuir Committee, who had attended. Many books of interest were on display and valuable information received in the preservation of history in the district. It had been an interesting evening.
 A large banner was on display at the meeting for use at the upcoming Area Convention. It had been designed by Mrs. M. Nellis, who along with Mrs. H. Dodds, Mrs. W. Frank and Mrs.

A. Murchison had done some fine handwork on it.
 Several upcoming dinner dates were mentioned within the next few weeks by Mrs. W. Lasby and Mrs. M. Hunter, of the Catering Committee.
 A fine report of the District Directors' meeting held in Milton recently was given by Mrs. Besley outlining coming events, and especially final plans for the Area Convention in Guelph on October 20-21, with several members hoping to attend sessions.
 Guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Linda Lamont, of Moffat, editor of the Nassagaweya News. She was introduced by Mrs. A. Diamond. Mrs. Lamont told of interesting facts leading up to the introduction of producing a newspaper for the township and area. Pictures of phases in its life were shown and were of much interest. It is a first for this old township to have a newspaper of its own, and an excellent way to preserve the name, beloved by many, but which loses its identity when regional government took over. In thanking Mrs. Lamont for her interesting talk, Mrs. Lasby, speaking for all present wished her continued success in producing this newsy newspaper.
