

Mary Martla gets some help from Catholic Women's League member Louise Pappillon at the CWL rummage sale Friday. Selling ceramics at the Acton Arts and Craft Exhibition and Sale Saturday were Linda and Julia Bowen.

Legion happenings

by Al McKerracher
On Sunday, November 6, Remembrance Day will be observed with a parade to the cenotaph starting at the Post Office at 10:15. The ceremony will be followed by a church service at Knox Presbyterian Church, then a dinner at the Branch.
Let's all try to be an "Early Bird" this year and pay our membership dues before the end of the year.
Entertainment this Saturday night in the Games Room will be supplied by Sheila and Eric. Don't forget to sell your Beef Draw Tickets. If more are required see Comrades A. Waldie, K. McPhail or K. Conroy.

Clergy Comment

by Rev. Jean Stairs
Charlie Brown made an important observation on winning and losing while talking to Lucy. "I feel bad when I lose," he said, "but when I win I feel so guilty."
To lose a precious relationship, a hopeful dream, a safe planet, or life itself, is something we all worry about. To lose is to learn that there are no guarantees. It is to become vulnerable. Life, in the end, makes losers of us all.
From the beginning to the end of his life, Jesus was swamped by events he could not control. Rejected by his hometown, family, friends, the nation, even at the last he felt forsaken by God. He knew what it was to lose everything.
We cannot control the events that overwhelm us either. However, we can choose how we will respond to what happens to us. Jesus did not give up his journey through life or flee from the risks of losing. He kept on the thorny path even though he couldn't see around the corners.
His story can be our story. We, too, can decide to risk all things for what we believe is right. Perhaps, after all, to lose is to win. "Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus, my Lord."

Ready for Halloween fun a few days early were Kelly MacDonald and Julie Waring who were on hand for the First Acton Halloween and garage sale Saturday at the Scout Hall.

Molotov cocktail thrown on lawn

Friday evening, 11:27 p.m. someone threw a beer bottle with gas in it (a molotov cocktail) on the front lawn of 132 Churchill Rd. S. The bottle did not break so there was no fire, but a firefighter was called for precautionary measures.

Rockwood

by Barbara Funk
Rockwood Beavers, Cubs and Scouts will be having their Annual cash register tape and bottle drive on Saturday between the hours of 9 a.m. to 12 noon. If you will not be home between those hours the groups ask you to leave your bottles and tapes at the parking lot next to the Rockwood Bicycle Shop.

The Rockwood and District Lionettes will again be hosting the annual Sky Party for all Eramosa ladies. The doors at Rockwood Centre will open at 7:30 p.m. for a fun evening. Remember ladies, there is no admission charge, all that is required of you, is that you are prepared to enjoy yourself. If you know anyone who might not come by themselves, please ask them to accompany you.

Something else to remember, is the Lions' Club Vegas '83. This will be on Saturday, November 19 beginning at 8 p.m. There will be games, prizes, a bar, and a free buffet. Cost for a single admission is $5. This evening is not for gentlemen, only, the Lions invite the ladies too.

The Lionettes Halloween Party for Eramosa children was a huge success on Saturday.

Some of the days winners were as follows: for Pumpkins—Grand prize went to Jenny Drexler; in the 4 yrs. and under category, first went to Bradley Powell and David Nichol, second, Amy McPhedran and third Maitlynd Haefling; for 5 and 6 yrs. old, first was shared by Christie Powel and Marinette Haefling, second, Melanie and Julie Rastel and Blake Lushman and in third place was David Brown, Tracey Cameron, Joe McLeod, Mark McPhedran, T.G. French, Paul Swackhammer and Jamie Aubit; in the 7 & 8 yr. category, first went to Dubi Storey, second to Sara G., last name not given and third to Jeremy Funk; in the 9 & 10 group, first—Tara Cameron, second Cherly McDuffee, and third Deanne Rockola, Marilyn Tosh and Brenda Heighl. Sherri Lawler was the only winner in the 11 & 12 yr. group.
