A jazz band made up of members of the Acton Golden Age Club made up just a small portion of the entertainment at the annual rally of senior citizens' groups in Zone 13 last Tuesday at the Acton Legion. Clubs from all over Halton attended.

Seniors hold zone rally

Zone 13 U.S.C.O. Annual Rally was held at Acton Legion Tuesday November 8 with 141 members present. A picnic lunch was enjoyed, the Legion Ladies supplied tea and coffee.

President Harold Cook welcomed the members and Mayor Peter Pomeroy spoke briefly. First Vice-President of the Legion, Earl Waller, welcomed the zone to the Legion.

The guest speaker, Stephen Dwyer, president of zone 14 Hamilton Wentworth spoke on the work of the senior citizens and what they can accomplish. The speaker was introduced by Clare Reed, past president of zone 13, and thanked by Art Swann.

Members were present from Malton, Georgetown, Aldershot, Waterdown, Burlington, Bronte and Acton. Each Club contributed to the program which consisted of choir numbers, solos, a quartet, readings, a violin solo, rhythm band and step-dancing and reading of poems by the authors.

The meeting ended with God Save The Queen and Blessed Be The Tie That Binds.

Meetings on elderly study

In the second phase of the regional study on services for the elderly, public meetings will be held in Acton November 22 and in Georgetown November 24.

The first part of the study identified the concerns and needs of the elderly and the second part makes recommendations on how to meet them.

Debbie Oakley of the Social Services Department told Halton Hills council, Monday, the recommendations will be made known to the people and she noted there are five options, with the consultants recommending one. She predicted lively discussions and encouraged councillors to attend.

The Acton meeting will be in Baptist Church, 80 Mill Street East, and the Georgetown one at the library on Church Street. Both will start at 2 p.m.
