St. Joseph's Sports

by Jim McGeragle

On November 22, St. Joseph's School hosted Milton north schools and lost in their bid for the regional volleyball championship.

In a five game series St. Joseph's managed one win and four losses as Holy Cross and St. Francis of Georgetown volleyed for top honors in the league.

However, the girls' team was more competitive than the record indicates as all games were won or lost by a close margin.

Defensively the key players were Karen Pfahler, Cynthia Johnston and Cindy Wallace. Good offense was credited to Justine Porter, Christine Couture and Laura Landridge.

All 15 players made a good effort in the matches and according to coach Jim McGeragle the grade six's and seven's, that will be making up next years teams, will be a squad to be reckoned with.

The match was the first loss for the Minor Bantams who outshot Brantford in their first match 38-2.

McKenzie-Smith sports

by Margie Parker

McKenzie-Smith School hockey is under way for the season as the try-outs have been started by Mr. Hymers and Mr. McBride.

Curling has also begun under the direction of P. Vidler. Grades six, seven and eight are taking part and they will be travelling to the Acton Curling club for instructions and a bonspiel between students and teachers.

Sally Leatherland receives some help from fellow Hockey Moms in drawing the winning numbers of the Acton Minor Hockey Association weekly lottery draw. Steve Berry of Mississauga won the $1,000 prize while ticket seller George Clare sold the winning ticket. There are just 114 tickets left for sale and the cutoff date for buying tickets is December 31.

There was an exciting scramble in front of the Preston goal in Bantam Rep hockey action recently. Acton downed Preston 4-0 in this game.

In Novice house league action recently Brampton and Burlington met in a highly contested match. Brampton finally overcame their opponents 6-2.

Weston and Guelph went at it recently in Novice Legion action playing most of this game with neither side able to break a 2-2 tie. Guelph finally won the match 3-2 with a last minute goal by Mark Hachey.

Meet the RAIDERS

GERRY INGLIS — COACH
When Dave Kentner returned as GM of the Georgetown Raiders his first goal was to talk veteran coach Gerry Inglis out of retirement.

Inglis is an experienced leader at both the junior and senior/intermediate level. Coaching junior squads in Milton and Dixie are in his past but more recently he has been at the helm of the Raiders. Two seasons ago he was the mentor as the Raiders claimed the Hardy Cup. After a year off Inglis is back looking for the Allan Cup.

The Glen Williams resident and stone-mason enjoys hunting in addition to his hockey and spends a little time away from the rink each winter on excursions.

ACTON HIGH SCHOOL MALE ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

PETE JONES
Pete Jones, 16, plays point guard for the Junior Boys basketball team and says he likes soccer and rugby as well.

The five foot nine inch athlete says he enjoys cars as his hobby and his hometown is Acton.
