WOULD the young man driving the black Duster who stopped to help me with my Collie dog who was hit by a van on Ewing Street, December 30, 1983, please call 877-0300 so I may thank you personally for your kindness. The dog has since died.

8 In Memoriams

ALLEN—In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Alfred Allen, who passed away January 5, 1980. God has you in his keeping. We have you in our hearts. Precious memories linger on. Sadly missed by wife Mary, son Gordon, daughter Eileen and families.

BEENEY—In memory of a dear friend Grampa Beeneey who passed away January 2, 1983. Sadly missed and remembered with love always.

COLE, Beatrice—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, who left us January 3, 1983.

Each time I see your picture Mom, You seem to smile and say, Don't cry I'm only sleeping. We will meet again some day. And when I'm sad and lonely, And everything goes wrong, I hear you whisper softly, Cheer up and carry on. But if I would have one wish, And know it would come true, I would telephone to heaven Mom, And ask to speak to you. Always missed and lovingly remembered by Linda and Cheryl.

COLE, In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother Beatrice who passed away January 3, 1983. No one knows the silent heartaches. Only those who have loved can tell The grief we bear in silence For the one we loved so well. Sadly missed and forever loved by husband Walter and family.
