Convert-to-Rent available to all

Ontario's Convert-to-Rent program, designed to simulate the conversion of non-residential properties into rental housing, is being extended to all municipalities in the province.

The program has been available only in Barrie, Brantford, Cornwall, Guelph, Hamilton, North Bay, Oshawa, Ottawa-Carleton, Peterborough, Sarnia, Sudbury, Thunder Bay and Metro Toronto.

The ministry has received dozens of requests for interest-free loans from owners of non-residential properties in other communities throughout Ontario, said Municipal Affairs and Housing Minister Claude Bennett.

The expansion of the program will allow owners of eligible properties in all communities to assess the need for conversions to rental, especially in smaller communities with tight vacancy rates.

Launched initially in Metro Toronto and Ottawa, the program was designed to be expanded to cover other areas with low rental vacancy rates.

The Convert-to-Rent program offers 15-year, interest-free loans of $7,000 per unit, to assist in the conversion of non-residential buildings such as warehouses, second-floor space above stores and vacant school property.

Application packages are available by calling the ministry at 416-585-6391 (collect if outside Toronto) or by writing to the Convert-to-Rent program, Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, 777 Bay Street, 2nd floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5G 2E5.

Criminal lawyers form association
