Redmen win one of three games

High School sports are back into full swing after the Christmas break as the girls' volleyball teams won four out of six matches, the boys' basketball teams have won two out of four scheduled games and the track team has gone indoors for numerous wins.

BASKETBALL

On the basketball scene the Junior Boys started off the new year on the right foot as they downed E.C. Drury 34-29 on January 4. Pete Jones led the Acton assault with 13 points and Jamie Lawson played a strong game sinking three baskets for six points.

More recently however, the Junior boys were at home January 6 to host Milton for a 38-36 win. Jamie Lawson managed 10 points in the match and Pete Jones tallied eight.

The Senior Redmen were also at home Friday but Milton proved to be a tough opponent as they lost 60-40. John Kwiatowski dribbled for 14 points in the match and Dave Leslie chalked up 12 points.

The Midget boys were also active in Friday's triple header but, again, an overpowering opposition managed a 51-27 upset over the local team. Brad Demone tallied six points in the effort and Jeff White totalled six as well.

In an exhibition match-up January 3 the Seniors took on Oakville Trafalgar and downed their opponents 59-44. Terry Cianfarani recorded 12 points in the game and John Kwiatowski managed 11 points.

VOLLEYBALL

In Redmen volleyball action January 5 the Junior Girls squad managed two wins out of three scheduled matches against Perdue.

In round one Perdue upset the local team 15-12 but Acton rebounded in the second game 15-7 and in the third and final match the Redmen went unchallenged in a 15-1 upset.

It was a different story however, in the Senior Girls division as Perdue took the first match 15-10, then in round two the Redmen lost out 15-5. In the final game Acton rallied to take a 15-8 win.

INDOOR TRACK

Acton's Teresa Dunn made a terrific showing at the High school track meet at York University January 6 as she recorded a first place finish in the women's shot-putting event with a throw of 9.95 metres.

In the 4x800 metre men's relay event the Acton squad of Doreen Uranick, George Gidman, Rohan Stoby and Al Higgins placed second.

Acton also competed in the women's 4x200 metre relay with a team of Doreen Uranick, Teresa Dunn, Pam Mahal and Kelly Courtney.

George Gidman, Rohan Stoby, Lee Lockyer and Dave Mahal ran in the men's 4x200 metre relay and Al Higgins made a good showing in the 60 metre dash.

On January 8 Acton High's two track stars, Doreen Uranick and George Gidman, participated in the All Corners Track Meet where Uranick placed first in the Women's 1500 metre event and Gidman managed fifth in the Men's 600 metre event.

Gidman ran the 600 metres in 1.23 seconds which is a personal best for the runner.

A Redmen Senior goes up for a basket in heated competition against Milton last Friday. The Redmen lost the match 60-40.

Charettes down Kitchener 4-1

On a three game schedule this week the Acton Charette Major Pee-Wees managed two wins and a loss.

On January 4 Charettes hosted Galt, blanking their opponent 4-0.

Rene Vankesteren, Tim Tibbits, Steve Robertson and Jason Boose recorded goals in the effort with assists from Boose, Vankesteren, Sean Sears, Robertson, Donnie Guest and David Harrison.

Acton travelled to Erindale January 6 and, with the hometown advantage, Acton's hosts won the match 4-2.

Erindale started the scoring drive early in the first period but a lone marker by Guest sent the two teams into the second period tied. Michael Williams assisted Guest on the goal.

In the second period Erindale took a second lead but Sears retied the game with an assist from Shawn Dryden.

Acton failed to score in the third period and two more markers by Erindale clinched the game for the hometown team.

On January 7 Acton took on the Kitchener Chargers and defeated their opponents 4-1.

Stephen Fleet opened the Acton scoring drive early in the first period unassisted and then Kitchener came back to tie the game midway through the third period.

Then, Guest chalked up a pair of markers and Robertson added a single to clinch the game.
