W.I. plans seminar on managing money

by Wallfred Smith
The junior choir provided an added pleasure to the service of worship on Sunday. Bob Pinkerton directed the young people and accompanied them on the piano. He also played the organ for the hymn singing. It was announced that the annual meeting would be held at the church Sunday, January 15 after lunch. The congregation are asked to bring lunch.

On Wednesday, January 18, at 8 p.m., the Ballinafad WI will be sponsoring a seminar on money management involving sheltering plans to cut your income tax. There will be a question and answer period. This will be an opportunity to obtain professional advice from an experienced money manager. It will be held at the community centre. All are welcome.

We are glad to hear Mrs. Pat Loughlan was able to leave hospital and return to her home. She is now recovering quite well from her serious illness.

Linda O'Connor and daughters, Amie and Karen, also Ruth Burt and her mother attended the open house at Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burt's on Wednesday last week. The occasion gave friends the opportunity of meeting their son Douglas, his wife and children who have been on vacation. They left for their home in Calgary on Friday. There were over 40 present who enjoyed the buffet supper served and the social time.

North Halton District Council, Scouts Canada met Wednesday night in the Optimist Hall. Dian Bowers of 2nd Acton opened the meeting with a prayer.

President Don McLaughlin chaired the meeting, and coming events were received including the leader appreciation dinner and dance April 7th at St. George's Hall, Georgetown. A pancake breakfast will be held February 4 at St. George's for sponsors and group committee members.

"Catch the Scouting Spirit" and visit the Scout display at the Community Open House to be held at Holy Cross School on February 24 and 25.

On January 28 a meeting will be held at Westminster United Church, Orangeville, for the Review task group, in regards to the restructure of regions.

D.C. Sandy Booth is contact person for the next scheduled first aid course, and the basic rescue course. Mr. Booth urged all Scouters to attend the regular Scouters Club. The guest speaker will be Ray Martin for "Drug Awareness" on January 18.

District Scouts are having a winter camp to be held at the Limehouse Conservation property by the Limehouse Scout Hut to be held January 13, 14, 15.

George Henderson is co-ordinator for "Trees for Canada", which will be held the last Saturday in April.
