Travel ties to close in AHS sports... on league leaders

In Industrial League hockey action last Sunday Acton Travel gained on the first place Family Cleaners in league standings. Nielsen's edged the Cleaners 3-2 to leave the Cleaner's with 26 points while Acton Travel in second place managed to tie the Jug City for a one point gain towards top spot. Also on Sunday Heller's upset ATW 8-6.

In the Heller's-ATW match Wayne Allen skated for a hat-trick to lead Heller's to victory. Jim Hurley, Steve McIntyre, Bill Severinski, Paul Campbell and Chris Tennant added singles. Heller's assists came from Dave Morris, Wayne Allen, Tennant and Campbell.

Jeff Townsley tallied a pair of markers for ATW and Randy McIntyre, Gary Pickles, Mike Morris and Rob Evans plugged a goal each. ATW assists were from Kent Kentner, John McCutcheon, McIntyre, Morris, Evans, Pickles and Townsley.

Don Brouillard, Andre Patkos and George Artem recorded a goal each for Nielsen's to edge the Cleaners and Dave Allen, Rusty Miller and Brouillard assisted.

Brad Buchanan and Chris Rowsell poked in a single each for the Cleaners with aid from Rowsell and Don Thornhill.

Clare Snow and Gary Lumber notched a goal each for Jug City to tie Acton Travel and Bruce Cooksley and Bill Manes recorded assists.

Floyd Hillier and Bruce McPherson were the two scorers for Acton Travel and McPherson and Ken Owen made assists.

The Industrial League standings are now:

Team	G	W	L	T	Pts.	GF	GA
Family Cleaners	19	12	5	2	26	95	73

Meet the RAIDERS

GARY FORD
 Gary Ford has been a long time member of the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders and not just as a player. Last season Ford handled the coaching duties with the local squad as they attempted to repeat as Hardy Cup champions. The former International Leaguer currently lives in Streetsville where he spends time coaching at the minor level. Gary was with the team as a centre and an important part of the Hardy Cup team and is back hoping that he can help in an Allan Cup bid.
